

INDEX

Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations.

- Aba Revolt (Women's War)* (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1965; fig. 7.10), 272, 274, 275, 277
- Aba Women's War, 293n24, 311n24
- Abayomi, Afolabi Kofo, 119
- abiku*, Yoruba word for "life unborn," 268, 271, 272
- abstract expressionism, 169; African artists and, 136; German, 134; lacking in older African artists, 242; post-World War II abstract, 127
- abstract expressionist(s), 129, 130, 169
- Abule-Oja, suburb of Lagos, 185, 189
- Académie Julian (Paris), 45
- Academy of Art, was to be located in Lagos, 234, 308n19
- Accident* (Colette Omogbai, ca. 1963; fig. 6.9), 253, 254
- Achebe, Chinua (born 1930) novelist, named Mbari Club, Ibadan, 63, 264, 273; and literary magazine, 233; works by, 10, 14, 79, 257, 268, 272, 274; and writers' and artists' club, 149, 288, 289
- Acheson, Louise, essayist, 175–76
- Adam and Eve* (Demas Nwoko, oil on canvas, 1962; fig. 5.14), 200
- Adam and Eve* (Demas Nwoko, oil on canvas, 1963; fig. 5.13), 199
- Adam and Eve* (Demas Nwoko, wood, 1962–1963, fig. 5.15), 200, 203
- Adam and Eve* series (Demas Nwoko, oil on canvas, 1962), five paintings, 197–98, 199, 200
- adaptation theory, adaption, adaptationism, adaptationist: of black essentialist aspects of Léopold Sédar Senghor's negritude aesthetics, 242; of European fauvist and symbolist formal styles, 113; following a model of acculturation for African societies, 60–62; ideas of British indirect rule educational policies, 18; ideas of Kenneth Murray, 132; of indigenous Nigerian art forms, 99; Lugardian model of, 63–64
- Adebayo Doherty* (Aina Onabolu, reputed to be his last painting), 45
- Adelabu, Adegoke, federal minister of Natural Resources and Social Services, 72
- Ademola, Francis, Nigerian writer, 302n43
- Ademola, Sir Adetokunbo, 235
- Adeniyi-Jones, Dr. O., 233, 300n26
- Adeniyi-Jones, Tunji, medical practitioner, 229
- adire*, textile design, Yoruba, 168, 208, 210, 215, 299n9
- Advisory Committee on Native Education, 34

- Afigbo, A. E. (The Warrant Chiefs, 1972), 293n24
- African Culture and Négritude, panel of "African Unities and Pan-Africanism" Conference (organized by AMSAC at University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, in June 1960), 242
- African diaspora, 2, 12, 128, 132, 133, 160, 239
- An African Night's Entertainment* (Cyprian Ekwensi, short story collection, 1962), 210
- African personality: as anticolonial ideology, 11; contributes to cultural nationalism and pan-Africanism, 16, 99; defined, 291n15; Edward Blyden and his idea of, 128; and negritude, 93–96; Nkrumah revived idea of, 9; political imperatives of, 93; rhetoric of, 4
- "African Unities and Pan-Africanism" Conference, 242
- AfriCOBRA painters, Chicago, 98
- Afrocentric aesthetic, 95
- Afro-Metaphysics" in Boghossian's work, 175
- Afro-nostalgia, 96
- Agbebi, Mojola (given name: David Brown Vincent), 28
- Aggrey, Dr. J. E. K., of Ghana, 34
- Aghama Youth Club of Fine Arts, Lagos, 64–65
- agwɔlagwɔ* spiral motifs, 186, 305n3
- Ahmadu Bello University, Department of Fine Arts, Zaria, 296n1
- Ajaka of Owo* (Akinola Lasekan, watercolor and gouache on paper, 1944; fig. 2.2), 48
- Ajayi, M. A., 78, 236
- Akanji, Sangodare (name given to Ulli Beier by Yoruba Sango cult), 300n10
- Akeredolu, J. D. (1915–1984), thorn carver, 119, 145
- Akolo, Jimo (born 1934): and Art Society, 18, 124, 126; attracts international attention, 83; changes in, 243; "coolest formalist among them," 147; discussed, 220–26; exemplar of progressive and modern Nigerian art, 140; figurative impulse in, 253; graduated from Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, Zaria, 83; and inauguration of Nigerian Art Academy, 236; influence of the European historical avant-garde on, 127; and Kingsway Stores show, 141; London paintings of, 220–26; mentioned, 297n20; one of Nigeria's and Africa's most influential artists, 5; paint application of, 126; participates in Mbari Ibadan and Mbari-Mbayo, Osogbo, summer workshops, 208; and Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, postcollege work of, 221, 224; postcolonial artistic language and, 226; star of new order, 146; won prizes at Northern Regional Festival of Arts, 85; works by, 124, 125, 138, 222–25, 289
- Ala, earth goddess and guardian of creativity and justice, 149
- Ali, Sultan, Indian artist, 300n22
- Allen, Major J. G. C., chairman, Lagos Art Council, 233, 238
- American Negro Art* (Cedric Dover), 169
- American Society of African Culture (AMSAC), 19, 228
- Amiet, Cuno, 166
- Ampofo, Oku, pioneer Ghanaian sculptor, 303n66
- AMSAC. See American Society of African Culture
- Ana, Igbo earth goddess, 197. See also Ana Mmuo (Land of the Dead) (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.11), 101, 104, 106, 110, 185–86
- Anatsui, El (born 1944), 4, 5
- Anderson, Benedict: and Aina Onabolu, 47; and "colonial pilgrimage," 9–10; and connection between rise of print capitalism and national consciousness, 27; study on nationalism, 9; tendency of political nationalism to insist on naturalness or authenticity of imagined nation, 92
- Anglophone: Africa, 21, 96, 294n43; African and diaspora writers, 17, 132; and pan-Africanists, 133; and Présence Africaine, 131–32
- Anguish* (Colette Omogbai, ca. 1963; fig. 6.10), 255
- Aniakor, Chike, 194, 276

- Annang (people), 311n25
- anticolonial, anticolonialism, anti-colonialist(s): and Aina Onabolu, 40, 41; and Art Society at Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, Zaria, 42; attacks against Frederick Lugard in print media, 29; ideologies, 11; and indirect rule, 26; and Kenneth Murray, 64; Lagos-based paper, West African Pilot, 35; national consciousness, 130; nationalists, 16; politics of the turn-of-the-century Lagosian and West African educated elite, 37; self-affirmative theories, practices, and visions, 7; subjectivity, 3; 2007 and 1955 Asian-African Conference, 92
- antimodernist, 40, 42
- Antubam, Kofi, 306n5
- Appadurai, Arjun, anthropologist, 44
- Appiah, Kwame Anthony, 13, 15
- Arabic calligraphy, 172, 175
- Araeen, Rasheed (born 1935), British artist, writer, and curator, 8, 51
- Aragbabalu, Omidiji, pseudonym of Ulli Beier, 137, 300n10
- Araldite®, epoxy resin glue, 212
- archetypal shapes, such as ntupo (dot), akala (line), isinwaoji (curvilinear triangles and rectangles), and oloma or onwa (circles and crescents), 186
- Arrow of God* (Chinua Achebe's novel), 10
- Art House Ltd., Lagos, 46
- Art in Development: A Nigerian Perspective* (1982), 105
- Art nègre*, and negritude, 98
- Art Resource, New York, 139, 167, 170, 173, 176
- Art Society, founded by students, 261, 297n20, 298n22, 304n90; and Aina Onabolu, 42; art and theory of natural synthesis proposed by, 41–42; art for national culture championed by, 253; art of, 99–127; artists of, 183; asked to submit work for Kingsway Stores show, 141; attraction to other painting genres, 127–30; attraction to postimpressionist, 245; championed, 169; disbanded, 236, 298n24; and establishment of Society of Nigerian Artists, 19; explores possibility of national association of artists, 236–37; and fauvist painting, 127; formation of, 1, 2, 71; and history of, 85–88; and idea of freedom symbolized by political independence, 226; ideas about ethnicity and artistic modernism in postindependence Nigeria, 201–7; indebted to “tactical root finding” of pan-Africanism and negritude, 132; in independence period, 3; inspired by cultural nationalism, 259, 260; Jimo Akolo's work and, 224, 226; motivating ideas of, 72; nationalistic rhetoric and modernist aesthetic of, 168; and natural synthesis, 88–93, 99, 127, 141, 215, 219, 220, 252; and négritude, 96, 98–99, 132; and political independence, 263; postcolonial modernism of, 16, 66, 133; radical, 17; rejection of Western art, 219; rhetoric of, 221; rigorous inquiry into indigenous art and craft as basis for new, 209; search for and articulation of a Nigerian artistic character, 239; and symbolic production of postcolonial self, 288; work of, artists of, 5, 6, 14, 17–18, 138, 140, 145, 184, 208
- art world, 3, 16, 17, 169; British, 59; contemporary in Nigeria, 1, 64, 77, 183, 228, 238; dignitaries of, 216; of Lagos, 18, 140, 263
- Arthouse Contemporary Ltd., Lagos, 115, 218, 246, 267
- Artists Rights Society, New York, 170, 173
- Arts and Crafts Pavilion, Nigeria Exhibition, 141, 143, 144, 301n30
- Arts of West Africa* (George A. Stevens, comp., 1935), 296n32
- artwork(s): of Art Society, 72; contemporary African called third-rate, 8; and Emokpae's painting The Last Supper, 248; formalist analysis of specific, 3, 15; as objects of systematic art appreciation, criticism, and history, 84; presented as decorative vignettes or portfolios, 181; regarded as functional, ritual objects, 89
- Asante Akua'mma figures, 160
- Asele Institute, Nimo, 6, 120, 123, 124, 142, 262; Philosopher (Demas Nwoko, 1965; fig. 5.18), 205, 206, 207
- Association of Nigerian Artists, 238

- Atkinson, Robin (born 1930) Lagos-based British architect, 231
- Atta, Prince Abdul Aziz, 245
- Atta of Igbirra, father of Prince Abdul Aziz Atta, 231
- avant-garde(s), 4; and Aina Onabolu, 39; Art Academy and, 71, 236; Euro-American, 261; European, 47, 63, 101, 115, 116, 124, 127, 128, 129, 138, 168, 285; India's first modernist group of, 137; interdisciplinary moment in Nigeria, 149; and Isabel Lambert, 82; modernist techniques of, 136; precubist and the Art Academy, 129; Russian, 245; twentieth-century, 12; Uche Okeke, Demas Nwoko, and their cohorts constitute, 14; Viennese, 136, 150
- Awolowo, Obafemi (1909–1987), opposition party leader, Nigeria, 264, 294n42, 306n18
- Azikiwe, Nnamdi (1904–1996), leader of Nigerian Youth Movement, 16, 89, 207; autobiography, My Odyssey, 294n41; background of, 35–36; founded Igbo State Union and Egbe Omo Oduduwa, 294n42; and Renascent Africa, 36, 294n43; and W. E. B. Du Bois, 35; and West African Pilot, 241
- Bacon, Francis, 82, 83
- Balogun, Chief Kolawole, 229, 233
- Bamboos* (Uthman Ibrahim, watercolor, ca. 1935; fig. 2.8), 67
- Bandeke, George, famed Yoruba sculptor, 145
- Bandung Conference of 1955, 131, 154
- Barker, Roy, co-founder with V. M. Barker, of art department at NCAST, 72, 83; and “National Art,” 77–8; and radio lecture defending program, 76, 126; sought affiliation with British art school, 75
- Barker, V. M., wife of Roy Barker, 72
- Barr, Alfred, Jr., founding director of Museum of Modern Art, New York, 216
- Barton, Joseph E., 55
- Bataille, Georges, 83
- Bathers I* (Bruce Onobrakpeya, deep etching, 1967; fig. 5.25), 214, 215
- Bathing Women* (Demas Nwoko, oil on canvas, 1961; fig. 3.17), 110, 111, 112, 201, 277
- Baule, tradition of sculpture, 158
- Beauty and the Beast* (Ben Enwonwu, oil on canvas, 1961; fig. 6.4), 243, 244, 301n34
- Beauty and the Beast* (Herbert M. Cole, video, 1985), 276
- Beggars in the Train* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1959; fig. 3.13), 106, 107
- Beier, Ulli (1922–2011), 16, 306n5; and aesthetic produced by encounter of international modern art practice with local artistic traditions, 172; and Africa Awakening (early 1960s), 160; art criticism of, 119; and artistic modernism, 132; author of Contemporary Art in Africa (1968), 6; and Ben Enwonwu, 252; and Black Orpheus, 17, 131, 133–34, 136–38, 140, 148, 149, 177, art criticism in, 257, reviews in, 153–54, 156–58, 160; championed work of some Art Society members, 169; and Colette Omogbai's paintings, 252, 253; and development and transaction of postcolonial modern art and art criticism, 183; and Die Brücke, 166, 168; and emergence of Nigerian art, 228, 238, 242; and Indian artists, 300n22; and influences on Skunder Boghossian, 177; and interest in art of the mentally ill, 135, 136, 161; and Langston Hughes, 304n82; the Mbari Artists and Writers Club at Ibadan, 132, 149, 151; and Mbari gallery, 151, 153, and exhibition brochure, 151–52, 162; and Mbari-Mbayo, 161, 302n48, 302n50, 303n70; and Nigeria magazine exhibition, 146–48; and 1961 continental tour, 153; and Okpu Eze, 252; organized shows at Mbari, Ibadan, of Schmidt-Rottluff prints, 165, 168, 169, and exhibition brochure, 166, 168, 304n79, invitation, 169, 171; and Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, 138, 140, and authenticity of work at, 147, believed art coming from part of nascent international phenomenon, 153; and photographs by, 159, 209; promoted work of formally trained artists, 161; and proposal to stage Soyinka's play A Dance

- of the Forests, 301n41; pseudonyms of, 137, 300n10; summer art workshops organized by, 18; and Susanne Wenger, husband of, 133–34, and his opinion of her work, 136; and Uche Okeke, 140, 147, 196; understanding and valuation of artistic tradition within Sudanese context, 175; work of, 17; and work of Agnaldo dos Santos, 175; writings of, 6, 82, 151–52, 160–61, 162, 165, 166, 168, 169, 171, 175, 303n70
- Beinart, Julian, South African architect and colleague of Pancho Guedes, 303n72; article in Black Orpheus, 161–62, 165; friend of Ulli Beier, 257; led Mbari Ibadan and Mbari-Mbayo, Osogbo, summer workshops, 208–9
- The Ben Enwonwu Foundation, Lagos, Nigeria: works from, 58, 146, 230, 244
- Benin, 207; ancient art of, 86; art of, and Julian Beinart, 79; early court style of, 145; ethnographic museum at, 78; personages and ceremonial events at, 143; royal and ritual sculpture, 208, 210, 215; sculptural traditions, 76, 158; and Simon Okeke, 217
- Benin City, art at Oba's Market in, 81, 296n39, 296n5
- Berger, John, 300n19
- Biafra, 279
- Biafran: cultural workshops, 309n50; secession from Nigeria, 274; War (1967–1970), 4, 279–80, 309–10n2
- Biafran Directorate of Propaganda, Arts Section, 261
- Bida, glass-bead manufacture in, 78
- Biobaku, S. O., 306n5
- Birmingham School of Art (top arts and crafts school in England), 52, 55
- “Biom Burial,” Uche Okeke (1958), account of burial and funerary practices of Birom people of Middle Belt region, 86
- Black Arts movement, United States, 98
- Black Orpheus*, journal, 131, 228, 302n42; advisory committee of, 299n4; art in, 199, 254, 255; art program of, 152; and Denis Williams's review of the Karl Schmidt-Rottluff exhibition, 168; featured sculptures of Brazilian artist Agnaldo dos Santos, 172; fortunes of, 177, 181; founded at Ibadan, Nigeria, in 1957, 14; gave voice to new generation of Anglophone African and black diaspora writers and artists, 17; and German writer Janheinz Jahn, 132, 165; and Ibrahim El Salahi, 4, 154, and Denis Williams's review of 1963 show at Galerie Lambert, Paris, 157; inaugurated discourse of postcolonial modernism, 257; and Jacob Lawrence and William H. Johnson, 169, and Ulli Beier, 171; and Julian Beinart's essay on Valente Malangatana, 162; and Labac magazine, 233; and late-1960s postcolonial Nigerian art and poetry, 19; and modern art, 133–34, 136–38, 140; and negritude, 99, 299n4; and Nigeria magazine, 257; and other art critics in, 160; primary authors of art criticism in, 257; role of in development and transaction of postcolonial modern art and art criticism, 183; signal forum of mid-twentieth-century African and black artistic and literary modernism, 2–3; and Ulli Beier, 17, 132, 133–34, 136–38, 140, 257, and interest in art of the mentally ill, 161, published emerging poets, novelists, and playwrights, 149, and his Susanne Wenger, Francis Newton Souza, and Demas Nwoko essays, 148, promotes the work of formally trained artists, 161, reviews by, 153, and transnational network of, 154, and Vincent Kofi, 158, wrote most of essays and art reviews in, 160; voice of the Ibadan era, 256; Wole Soyinka's “Abiku” poems in, 310n14
- Black Writers and Artists Congresses: (1956), 258; (1959), 128
- Bleyl, Fritz, 166
- Blyden, Edward Wilmot (1832–1912), educator and writer: author of “The Idea of an African Personality,” 93–94; concept of African Personality, 128; early black nationalist, 2; intellectual tradition of, 35; member of Lagos's educated elite, 69; proposed West African University, 31, 36

- Boghossian, Skunder (1937–2003), Ethiopian artist: exhibited at Mbari, 172; influenced by negritude, 176; and Wilson Tiberio, 305n100; work of, Louise Acheson essay on, 175–76; works by, 176, 178; and Ulli Beier, 177
- Bois, Yve-Alain, 193
- Bonhams, auction house, London, 116, 119
- Brancusi, Constantin, 158
- Bread and Bullet* (Hubert Ogunde, 1954), 286
- The Bridgeman Art Library, 49
- British arts and crafts movement, 56
- British Council's Art Club, directed by Uche Okeke, 310n3
- British indirect rule, 7, 18. See also indirect rule
- bronze-lino, technique developed by Bruce Onobrakpeya, 210
- Brooke, Donald, 75
- Brown, Evelyn, Harmon Foundation, 231
- Bruce Onobrakpeya: The Spirit in Ascent* (1992), 214, 215
- C. Mitchell and Company, 301n28
- C.M.S. Grammar School, Lagos, 295n12
- Cahier d'un retour au pays natal* (1939), by Aimé Césaire, 133
- Calligraphy* (Ahmed Shibrain, ink on paper, ca. 1962; fig. 4.23), 174
- Camberwell School of Art and Crafts, London (now Camberwell College of Arts), 82, 181, 297n13, 299n56
- Camille, Roussan (1912–1961), 299n4
- Canclini, Nestor Garcia, 12
- Carr, Henry, Lagosian lawyer, 27
- Carroll, Father Kevin, workshop at Oye-Ekiti, 145
- Carr-Saunders Commission, 82
- Casely-Hayford, J. E., 36
- Catterson-Smith, Robert (1853–1938), British Arts and Crafts movement, 55–56
- Central School of Art and Design in London, 231
- Césaire, Aimé (1913–2008): and negritude, 95–96, 299n4; and Cahier d'un retour au pays natal (1939), 133
- Christ* (Uche Okeke, 1961; fig. 3.9), 101, 102
- Churchgoers* (Demas Nwoko, 1959), 106, 109
- “Civilian and Soldier” (Wole Soyinka, poem), 279–80
- Cižek, Franz (1865–1946), Austrian art educator, 55–56, 136
- Clark, Irene (1927–1984), painter and designer, 304n92
- Clark, John Pepper, Nigerian poet, 149
- Coconut Palms* (Ben Enwonwu, watercolor, 1935; fig. 2.6), 58
- Coldstream, William, 297n13
- Coleman, James, 207
- colonial nativism, 40, 41
- colonial pilgrimage, 9–10
- colonialists, 25, 27; objugation of native artistic ambitions and agency, 69; and racist snobbery, thought, 7
- Combatant I* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1967; fig. 7.13), 280, 281, 281; changed name to Soldier in Ambush, 311n32
- Combatant II* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1967; fig. 7.14), 280, 281, 282, 283; changed name to Soldier in Ambush, 311n32
- “Come Thunder” (Christopher Okigbo, in Path of Thunder, poetry collection), 264
- “The Coming of John” (W. E. B. Du Bois, short story), 22
- compound consciousness, 9, 11, 28
- Conflict (After Achebe)* (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1965; fig. 7.9), 272, 273
- Congress for Cultural Freedom (Paris), 149, 151, 228, 301n42
- Coomaraswamy, Ananda (1877–1947): book, The Dance of the Siva (1918), 56
- CORAC, Council on Race and Caste in World Affairs, 228
- Council on Race and Caste in World Affairs (CORAC), 228
- Covered Way* mural (Bruce Onobrakpeya, gouache on paper, 1960), Nigerian Art exhibition, 143, 210, 301n28, 301n30; fig. 4.5 (detail), 144
- Cowherd* (Afi Ekong, oil on canvas, early 1960s; fig. 6.3), 232
- craftwork: African, 61; Sudanese, 4
- Craven, David, 12

- Cravo, Mário (born 1923), Brazilian modern sculptor, 177
- Crisis* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1967; fig. 7.11), 278, 279
- Cromwell, Oliver, 32
- Crowder, Michael: and Ben Enwonwu, 308n32; director of Exhibition Centre, 228, 302n50; editor of Nigeria magazine, 141, 257; and Erhabor Emokpae, 245; and government's "Nigerianization" policies, 233; and 1960 Nigerian Exhibition, 230; on selection committee for Kingsway Stores exhibition, 141, 142; residence of, 142; and young artists in Nigeria, 129, 145, 242
- Crowther, Reverend Samuel Ajayi, 28
- Crucifixion* (Francis Newton Souza, oil on board, 1959; fig. 4.3), 139
- Crummell, Alexander (1819–1898), 94
- cubism/cubist: formalist experimentation, 57; and members of the Art Society, 129–30; and Pablo Picasso, 126, 127, 138, 193, 303n57; radical style of, 127; Wilson Tiberio and Les Forçats (The Convicts), 160
- d'Eichthal, Gustav, French ethnologist, 25
- Damas, Léon-Gontran (1912–1978), 299n4
- A Dance of the Forest*, 1960 play by Wole Soyinka, 197, 286, 301n41, 310n11
- The Dance of the Siva*, 1918 book, Amanda Coomaraswamy, 56
- Dancing Couple* (Owambe) (Demas Nwoko, terra-cotta, 1968; fig. 7.18), 283, 287
- Dancing Masquerader* (Bruce Onobrakpeya, oil on board, 1965; fig. 5.21), 209, 212
- Danford, John A. (d. September 1970), British artist, regional director of British Council: essay by on Nigerian art, 65–67; bronze statue Emotan (1954), 78, 81, 296n39, 296n5; and Nigerian art, 147; and 1948 exhibition, 67
- de Beauvoir, Simone, 83
- de Monchaux, Paul (born 1934), Canadian sculptor and NCAST faculty member, 74, 79, 80; graduate of the Slade, 78; lectures and seminars on African art by, 79, 297n12
- decolonization: African, 95, in first half of twentieth century, 7; age of, 92; Aimé Césaire imagines as negritude in action, 96; cultural, 285, implications of, 131; development of independence movements and ideologies of, 22; implications and impact of political on thematic and stylistic directions of artists' work, 14; Kwame Nkrumah's concept of, 9, and African personality, 94; politics of, and Africa, 6, 289, artistic, 127, in Nigeria, 6, 13, 289, and Onuora Nzekwu, 257; regionalization of process of, 260; rhetoric and ideologies of inspire artists, 2, 4; waves of spread worldwide, 12, set off at end of World War II, 15, 24
- Delange, Jacqueline, 57
- Deliss, Clémentine, 250
- Department of Extra-Mural Studies at the University College, Ibadan, 204, 303n60
- Dérain, André, 83
- Deren, Maya (1917–1961), 134
- Desta, Gebre Kristos (1932–1981), Ethiopian abstract painter, 226
- Dialogue* (Erhabor Emokpae, oil on board, 1962, fig. 6.7), 246, 249
- diaspora, African, 2, 12, 17, 94, 128, 132–33, 160, 239
- Die Brücke (the Bridge), 121, 166, 168
- Die Brücke (the Bridge) painters, Germany, 121; dissolution of, 166; formed by, 166, 168; members of, 166; Schmidt-Rottluff directly influenced by African sculpture, 168
- Die Entführung aus dem Serail*, Mozart's opera, 197
- Dike, Dr. K. O., principal, University College, Ibadan, 169
- Diop, Alioune (1910–1980), Senegalese teacher and entrepreneur and publisher of Présence Africaine, 131, 306n5
- Diouf, Ibou, 98
- dos Santos, Agnaldo (1926–1962), Brazilian artist: in 1966 won (posthumous) sculpture prize at World Festival of Negro Arts, Dakar, 172; work of, and Ulli Beier, 177; works of, 179, 204

- Dosumu, A. O. Delo, 42
- double consciousness (W. E. B. Du Bois idea), 10
- Dover, Cedric (author of American Negro Art), 169
- Dr. Sapara* (Aina Onabolu, undated), 45
- Drewal, Henry J., 11
- Drummer* (Vincent Kofi), 159
- Du Bois, W. E. B. (1868–1963): and African personality, 16; and black emancipation pan-Africanisms of, 37; and Booker T. Washington, 34; called for literary education of black “Talented Tenth,” 27, for standard black universities, 34; concept of race based on nineteenth-century European racialist thought, 94; exerted tremendous influence on twentieth-century African nationalists, 33; influence on educated class of Africans, 35; irritating racial equality of, 35–36; Nnamdi Azikiwe and, 35, 294n43; and notion of Double Consciousness, 10; short story by, 22; work of, 89
- Dual Mandate in British Tropical Africa*, Lord Frederick Lugard’s influential book, 31, 209n10
- Duerden, Dennis, art critic: assisted Jimo Akolo to travel to London, 220; education officer and art teacher at Keffi Boys Secondary School, 67; in discussion of contemporary Nigerian art used “synthesis,” 91; mentored William Oloosebikan, 297n20; and nature of influence on young artists in Nigeria, 242; and Uche Okeke, 185; work of, 238
- Earning a Living* (Demas Nwoko, 1959), 106
- Eastern Nigeria Theatre Group (ENTG), 262, 310n3
- “Ebinti Song,” Uche Okeke (poem, 1960), 86
- École des Arts, Dakar, 97, 98
- Edgbaston Church of England College for Girls, Birmingham, England, 56
- Edo sculptural forms and motifs, 210
- Education Policy in British Tropical Africa* (1925), historic white paper, 34, 294n38
- Efik (people), 311n25
- Egbe Omo Oduduwa, pan-Yoruba cultural association, cofounders Nnamdi Azikiwe and Obafemi Awolowo, 294n42
- Egbenuoba* (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.7), 99, 100, 124
- Egerton, Sir Walter, 23, 24
- Egwugwu masks, 272
- Eicher, Diana, 104
- Eicher, Joanne B., and Cynthia, 104
- Eid, Vilma, collection, 179
- Eke, Chief A. Y., registrar of the University of Lagos, 235, 307n14
- Eke shrine, Uli mural, Uke, Anambra State, 1987; photo, Dr. Liz Peri, fig. 5.4, 188
- Ekeada, Felix Nwoko (born 1934), 85
- Eketekete vbe Erevbuye* (Two Laziest People) (Bruce Onobrakpeya, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.18), 112, 113
- Eko Boys High School, Lagos, 295n12
- Ekong, Afi (1930–2009), 307n15; appointed to selection committee for 1960 Kingsway Stores exhibition, 141; bronze bust of (1930–2009; fig. 4.7), 145, 146; director, Gallery Labac, Lagos, 231, 307n11; Erhabor Emokpae, her protégé, 243, 245; and formation of Nigerian Art Academy, 236; and Lagos art council committee, 238; monthly art program, broadcast on Nigerian Television Service, 237; secretary of Lagos branch of Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Art and Culture, 307n11; works by, 232
- Ekwensi, Cyprian (1921–2007), popular Nigerian novelist and occasional art commentator: Lagos resident, 306n1; member of board of Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Arts and Culture, 307n8, of National Arts Council, 233, of older generation of Nigerian artists, 19; 1962 short story collection An African Night’s Entertainment, 210; published “High Price of Nigerian Art,” critique of big, abstract, pricey paintings by young Nigerian artists, 251, 252; works of, 79, 210, 251, 254
- Ekwere, John (life dates unknown), founded drama group Ogui Players, 310n3; led Mbari Enugu, 261

- El-Khalil, Mr. and Mrs. Faysal, collection of, 115
- El Salahi, Ibrahim (born 1930), Sudanese artist, 289, 303n57, 305n12, 306n12; and Black Orpheus, 154, 157; and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 153, 302n54; effort at formal deconstruction of Arabic calligraphic form, 303n57; first African artist with one-person show at Mbari, 153; and Khartoum school, 175; and Ulli Beier, 158, 177, and Denis Williams, 157, 169; work at Mbari, Ibadan, and in Black Orpheus, 4, 14, Slade period, 156; works of, 155, 157
- Emeka, Lawrence, 262, 310n3
- Emokpae, Erhabor (1934–1984), Nigerian sculptor and graphic designer, 5, 19, 307n15; appeared on Afi Ekong's monthly art program, on Nigerian Television Service, 237; and Christianity, 248, 309n36; and Colette Omogbai, 256; discussed formation of Nigerian Art Academy, 236; early paintings described, 245; and European surrealism, 248; and hard-edge symbolism, 253; member of Federal Society for the Arts and Humanities, 235, of National Arts Council, 233; not one of Ulli Beier's favorite artists, 243; and price charged for his paintings, 252; son of a Bini chief, 245; target of Ben Enwonwu's ire, 243, 245; working on monumental Olokun, 212; works by, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 265, 289, 308n35; and Yusufu Zaki, 248, 251
- Emotan* (John Danford, bronze statue, 1954; fig. 3.5), 78, 81, 296n39, 296n5
- Enoch, Christian zealot, 272
- Enuani Dancers* (Demas Nwoko, terra-cotta, 1968; fig. 7.17), 283, 286
- Enugu Musical Society, Lawrence Emekaled, 310n3
- Enwonwu, Ben (also called Benedict Chukadibia, 1917–1994), 307n15, 308n20; abstraction, rejection of, 240, 241, 243, 251–52; birth date of, 296n4; bourgeois lifestyle of, 166; called for new aesthetics of African art, 239; claims made in Drum essay, analyzed, 241–43, 246, 252, 258; criticism of the gallery's [Gallery Labac, acronym for: Lagos branch of the Arts Council] poor quality of work and bad display, 307n12; criticism (1964) of trends in postindependence Nigerian and African art, 239–40; cult of beauty led by, 253; directed ire toward Zaria graduates, 243; essay "Into the Abstract Jungle," 231, 308n21; famous 1956 critique of colonial art institutions, 84; Federal Art Supervisor in the Information Office, 75; given responsibility for official arts and crafts exhibition at Kingsway Stores exhibition, 141, feud with council over, 141–42, 230–31, 234; gives lecture on contemporary Nigerian art, 82; goals of for national association of artists, 236; member of National Arts Council, 233, older generation of artists, 19; memorandum (December 1960) asking for reorganization of National Arts Council, 234, 238; met to discuss formation of Nigerian Art Academy, 236, elected vice president–director of, 236, initiative for collapsed, 236–37; and Ministry of Commerce and Industry, 301n27; national influence of, challenged, 146; Nigeria's most famous artist, 75, 85; Nigerian modernist, 263; and 1960 Independence Exhibition, 230–31, 234; paper at the Negro Artists and Writers Congress in Paris, 295n5; picture of young, brash artist lacking rigorous academic training, 245; prices of works by, 251; radio broadcast by, 75–76; and rival Felix Idubor, 78, 145; and Roy Barker, 77; and Society of Nigerian Artists, 238–39; sophisticated "African style" of, 54, 145; student of Kenneth Murray, 54, 145; Times article (1960) by, 239; and Uche Okeke, 86, 220, 236; and Ulli Beier, 308n32; a voice of new generation of artists, 143; writes letter asking artists to withdraw from Kingsway exhibition, 141–42; works of, 58, 78, 145, 146, 147, 229, 244, 254, 301n34, 308n31, of African dancers and black female nudes, 98; and younger artists, 301n32

- Enwonwu's bronze bust, Head of Afi (Afi Ekong, 1930–2009), 145; (fig. 4.7), 146
- Enwonwu's bronze statue of Queen Elizabeth II in Lagos, commissioned by Foreign Office (1957), 78, 308n31
- Enwonwu's Sango sculpture for the Nigerian Electric Commission, Lagos (fig. 6.1), 229, 230
- Enwonwu's wood sculpture ensemble, Risen Christ (1953–1954) at the Anglican Chapel, University College, Ibadan, 78
- Epstein, Jacob, 83
- Esan, Yetunde, Nigerian writer, 302n43
- Esie, Nigeria: soapstone sculptures at, 78; sculptural traditions, 76
- Ethiopia Unbound* (1911), book by Casely-Hayford, 36
- Euromodernist style, 127
- European Art Empire, 298n25
- Euston Road School pictures, 119, 121, 297n13
- Ewu "Ewu," Uche Okeke (poem), 86
- Exhibition Centre, Lagos: Afi Ekong exhibition at, 231; first gallery exhibition of students' work (1955), 72; and Gallery Labac, 233; inaugural meeting and exhibition of the Society of Nigerian Artists at, 237; and Jimo Akolo's exhibitions at, 220; opportunities for exhibitions offered by, 227, 228; run by Michael Crowder, 257, 302n50; with properly outfitted, custom-designed gallery space, 306n6
- extra-mural program at University College, Ibadan, 132
- Eze, Okpu (1934–1995), 306n6; artist-critic, 119, 121, 229; called a surrealist, 252–53; dismissed illustrative, pretty, or narratively coherent work, 256; Erhabor Emokpae's work similar to, 252; irreverent painter, 19, young, brash, 245; and Okechukwu Odita, 119, 121; and Vincent Kofi, 229; and work of, 253, large-scale, 248; and Yusufu Zaki, 251
- Ezeulu, priest, 10–11
- The Fabled Brute* (Uche Okeke, 1959), 103
- Fagg, William, keeper of Ethnology at British Museum, 8, 216
- Fagunwa, D. O., Nigerian writer, 302n43
- Falsey, Lamidi (1928–2009), Nigerian sculptor, 145, 147
- The Famished Road* (Ben Okri, novel, 1991), 271–72, 310n13
- Fanon, Frantz (1925–1961), social philosopher: and critique of negritude, 98; idea of national culture, 98, 239
- Farfield Foundation: CIA-sponsored organization, 301n42; subsidiary, Paris-based Congress for Cultural Freedom, 149
- Fasuyi, T. A. (Timothy Adebajo), 82, 236, 237
- Federal Society of Arts and Humanities (FSAH), 19; collection at University of Lagos, 211, 213, 232, 244; represented Lagos cultural elite, 261; and Yusufu Zaki, 248
- Female Model (Okechukwu Odita, oil on board, 1962; fig. 3.29), 121, 123
- Fialdini, Romulo, 179
- Fifth Pan-African Congress, Manchester, England (1945), 9
- First Congress of Black Writers and Artists, at the Sorbonne, Paris (1956): and Ben Enwonwu, 75, 258, 296n5; and Cedric Dover, 169; deliberations and communiqués issued at, 128; described by conservative French media as "Cultural Bandung," 92; and Léopold Sédar Senghor, 303n68; organized by Alioune Diop, 131–32; themes of, 299n1
- First International Congress of African Culture, Salisbury, Rhodesia (ICAC), 216
- Flemming, A. W. L., British official in the Gold Coast, 29
- folktale(s): and Art Society, 85, 168; Bruce Onobrakpeya collected, 112; Igbo, 103, 112; and Uche Okeke, 105, 106, 192; Urhobo, 143
- Four Sheep* (Jacob Lawrence, tempera and gouache on paper, 1964; fig. 4.22), 172, 173
- "Françafrique," 9
- francophone: black writers and intellectuals in Paris, 95; journal Présence Africaine, 92, 132
- Franz Meyer Studios, Munich, 192

- Frith, Clifford, painter and former teacher at Camberwell School of Art and the Goldsmiths' College, 82–83, 298n25; and British figurative modernism, 130; and Euston Road School, 119, 297n13; former student of Victor Pasmore at Camberwell, 297n13, 299n56; influence of as teacher, 119; and Isabel Lambert, 297n14; works of, 119, 121, 122
- Fry, Margery, 57
- Fry, Philip, 57, 59
- Fry, Roger, art critic, 55, 56
- Fulani Empire (Nigeria), 25
- Fulani Horsemen* (Jimo Akolo, oil on canvas, 1962; fig. 5.28), 221, 222
- Fulani Portrait* (Clifford Frith, oil on canvas, ca. 1960; fig. 3.26), 121
- Fundação Malangatana Valente Ngwenya, 163, 164
- Galeria Estação, Sao Paulo, Brazil, 179
- Galeria Galatea, Buenos Aires, Argentina, 233
- Galerie Lambert, Paris, 197
- Gallery Labac (acronym for Lagos Branch of the Arts Council), first commercial gallery, in Lagos: Afi Ekong manager of, 307n11; boutique atmosphere, 233; criticism of gallery's poor quality of work and bad display, 307n12; established, 231
- Gauguin, Paul, 112
- George, Deinde, 141
- George, Patrick (born 1923): British figurative modernism of, 130; British painter and NCAST faculty member, 78, 79, 84, 121; departed NCAST, 82; and Isabel Lambert, 83; work of, 123
- Gerrard, A. H., Slade art professor at NCAST, 75, 296n3
- Giacometti, Alberto, 83, 195
- A Giant Tree* (Naoko Matsubara, woodblock print, 1962; fig. 4.29), 180
- The Gift of Talents* (Demas Nwoko, large mural, 1961; fig. 5.11), 196, 197, 200
- Gilroy, Paul, 12
- Girl before a Mirror* (Madchen vor dem Spiegel) (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, woodcut on cream wove paper, 1914; fig. 4.18), 166, 167
- Goldsmiths' College, London, 82, 87, 89, 298n25
- Government Museum, Trivandrum, Kerala, India, 49
- Gowing, Lawrence, 297n13
- Graphisches Kabinett J. B. Neumann, 167
- Graven Image* (Okpu Eze, 1963), 253
- Grillo, Yusuf (born 1934): and Afi Ekong, 231, 237; and Art Society, 85, 304n90; canvases of explored postcubist figuration and palette, 18; commissioned to design a mural on theme of Nigerian agricultural products, 301n28; executed commissions for Lagos churches, 11; Federal Society for the Arts and Humanities, 307n15, secretary of, 235; founding president of Society of Nigerian Artists, 237; graduation of, 298n22; and inauguration of Nigerian Art Academy, 236; influenced by early European avant-garde, 115; and Jimo Akolo, 126; pointed out centrality of ethnicity as the locus of nationalist subjectivity in Nigeria, 207; stature and influence of, 5; and Ulli Beier, 147; won medals and certificates in Nigerian Festival of the Arts, 297n20; works of, 115, 115–16, 116, 117, 118, 119, 148; Zaria graduate, 306n1
- Guedes, Pancho (Amâncio d'Alpoim Guedes; born 1925), Mozambican architect and painter, 161
- Guernica* (Pablo Picasso, 1937), 103
- Hammersmith School of Art, London, 66
- Harmattan Landscape with Figures* (Clifford Frith, oil on canvas, 1960–1961; fig. 3.27), 119, 122
- Harmon Foundation, New York, 231; and Simon Okeke, 307n12; T. A. Fasuyi solicits support from, 237; Ulli Beier solicits support from, 304n92
- Hart, Mrs., patron of Art Society, 85
- Hartung, Hans, lyrical abstract painter, 175
- Harvest* (Yusuf Grillo, early 1960s; fig. 3.22), 116, 118, 119
- "Harvest of Hate," poem, Wole Soyinka, 264
- Hassan, Salah M., 155
- Hathiramani, Mr. G., collection of, 119

- Hausa Drummer* (Jimo Akolo, oil on canvas, 1961; fig. 3.31), 124, 125
- Hausa Standing* (Patrick George, oil on hardboard, 1959; fig. 3.28), 123
- Head of a Woman* (Ben Enwonwu, bronze), 145
- Head of Afi* (Ben Enwonwu, bronze, ca. 1959, fig. 4.7), 145, 146
- Heavensgate* (Christopher Okigbo, inaugural poetry collection, 1961), 264
- Heckel, Erich, 166, 168
- Heller, Reinhold, 166
- Hendrickse, Begum, South African writer, 302n43
- "High Price of Nigerian Art" (Cyprian Ekwensi, Nigeria magazine), 251, 252
- Hope, Donald, art educator at Zaria, 84, 153
- Hopkins, Gerard Manley, and "Hopkins Disease," 308n26
- "Hopkins Disease," phrase coined by critics, 240, 308n26
- Hornsey College of Arts and Crafts, London, 220
- Houphouët-Boigny, Félix (1905–1993, president and prime minister, Ivory Coast), 9
- Hughes, Langston, 169, 304n82, 306n5
- Hunt-Cooke, A., acting chief federal advisor on education, 72
- Hunter in a War Scene* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1967; fig. 7.12), 278–79, 280
- Husband, W. A., NCAST registrar, 75
- Husband and Wife* (Oselola Osadebe, oil on board, 1964; fig. 3.30), 121, 124
- Huxley, Sir Julian (1887–1975), world-renowned biologist and author, 83
- Ibadan Extra-Mural Studies program, 160
- Ibeto, Christopher C. (Christopher Chukwunyenye), student of Kenneth Murray, 54; works of, 58
- Ibibio (people), 311n25
- Ibo Dancers at Awka* (C. C. [Christopher Chukwunyenye] Ibeto, watercolor, 1937; fig. 5.7), 58
- "Ibo Folk Tales," Uche Okeke, 86
- Ibrahim, Kamala (Ishag), key member of "Old Khartoum school" based at the Khartoum Technical Institute, 153
- Ibrahim, Uthman: student of Kenneth Murray, 54; works of, 67
- Idah, Ovie, Nigerian sculptor, 147
- Idehen, Festus, Nigerian sculptor, 147, 231, 236, 237
- Idubor, Felix (1928–1991), and Afi Ekong, 231; apprenticed to a Bini master carver, 145; Ben Enwonwu's great rival, 78; at inauguration of Nigerian Art Academy, 236; and prices for his work, 251; ran a well-known studio, 301n35, 306n1; work evocative of early Benin court style, 145
- Ife, 207; ancient art of, 86, terra-cottas of, 205; and Demas Nwoko, 204, 205; ethnographic museum established at, 78; masterpieces of, 204; royal houses of, 47; and Simon Okeke, 217; sculpture, 51, 217, traditions, 76
- ife kwulu ife akwudebe ya* (Igbo saying, when something stands, something else stands beside it), 197
- Igbo mbari: houses, 299n9; and Mbari Club, 150; name given collective of writers, artists, dramatists, and critics established in Ibadan in 1961, 149–50; and postcolonial modernism, 288–89; sculpture, painting, and architectural complex dedicated to Ala, goddess, 149
- Igbo, 311n23; architecture, sculpture, and painting, 150; arts and cultures, 207; and Christian zealot, Enoch, 272; culture, mid-twentieth-century, 220, and traditional society, 217; cultural association, 294n42; dancers, 283; earth goddess, 197; figural sculpture, 18; folklore, 196, 274, and religion, 11, 86; folktales, 103, 106, 112; hunters' cult among the north-central, 100; imaginary world, 197; masks, 276, carved face, 100; mythology and metaphysics, 266, 268; nationalism, 274; native culture, 201; oral literature, 79; people, 208, 274, 293n24, 311n25, massacre of, 260, 309n50; performative iconography of war, 277; potters, 204; sculptors, 198; sculpture(s), 147, 152, 196,

- 198, 201; sociopolitical history, fictional, 266; traditional architectural design and principles, 5; traditional mural and body art, 101; woman, 204; women, 274, 276. See also Nwoko, Demas; Okeke, Uche; Owerri Igbo (people)
- Igbo State Union, pan-Igbo cultural association, 294n42
- Igbo Uli (body drawing and mural painting), 185; female artists of, 186; inspiration for Uche Okeke's Oja Series, 14, 18, examples of, 190–91; motifs of, 187, 188, 189, 305n3; West African traditional graphic form, 5; works of, 184–86, 189, 192–93, 194, 196, 205, 207, 208
- Igbo-Ukwu: ancient art of, 85, 219; bronzes at, 219; myth of, 215; and Simon Okeke, 217
- Ijimere, Obotunde (pseudonym of Ulli Beier), 300n10
- Imoukhuede, Mabel, Nigerian writer, 302n43
- indirect rule: and Advisory Committee on Native Education, 34; and anticolonialists, 26; apologists for, 22, 26, 30, 51; British, 7, ideology, educational policies, 18, 32, 34, white paper on, 34; challenges to, 29; and claim to preservation of preserving Islamic/African cultures and political structures, 25–26; and colonial education, 23; colonialism, 23, 35, 68, 69; and colonial modernism, 39; designed to suppress literacy and keep Africans from attaining modernity, 31; era of, 43; foundation in racist ideology and antimodern framework, 30; history of, 25; ideology and practice of, 21; and Kenneth Murray, 59, 64, 68, and book that laid out framework for, 292n10; and Lord Frederick Lugard, 25, 30, 31, 32; and Mary Kingsley, 25, 292n12; native antagonists to, 23; Nigeria relied on practice of, 42; and Nnamdi Azikiwe, 36; and Phelps-Stokes Fund, 34; and the United States, 33, 35
- “Into the Abstract Jungle,” essay, Ben Enwonwu, 231
- Ionian Sports event, Ondo (1957), 85
- isinwaqji*, Uli motif abstracted from space at the head of four-lobed kola nut (cola acuminata), 305n3
- Iwalewa-Haus, University of Bayreuth: collections of, 103, 135, 155, 157, 163, 164, 174
- Iwin* (Susanne Wenger, screen print, ca. 1958; fig. 4.1), 135
- J. K. Randle Hall, Lagos, 229, 235
- The Jacob and Gwendolyn Lawrence Foundation, Seattle, 170, 173
- Jahn, Janheinz (1918–1973): advocate of negritude literature, 132, 133, 229n4; co-editor of Black Orpheus, 165
- Jeanes School, Kabete, Kenya, 34
- Jensen, Theodore, Dutch painter, 47
- Johnson, William H. (1901–1970), African American expressionist painter: exhibition for by Ulli Beier, 304n92; featured in Black Orpheus, 169, 171; show for sponsored by American Society of African Culture, 229; show of screen prints, 181
- Jones, Jesse, 34, 294n37
- Jos Museum, Zaria Art Department, 82, 85, 101, 299n51
- Juju's Wedding* (Skunder Boghossian, tempera and metallic paint on cut and torn cardboard, 1964; fig. 4.24), 176
- Jumaa* (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.10), 101, 103
- Kafanchan, site of Cultural Center established by Uche Okeke, 185, 261
- Kano, Aminu, leader of Northern Elements Progressive Union, 293n15
- Kapur, Geeta, 47, 89, 298n29
- Keffi Boys Secondary School, 67; 1956 exhibition of paintings and prints by at Museum of Modern Art, New York, 85
- Kennedy, Jean: book by, 6; and Simon Okeke, 217, 219
- kente cloth, 9
- Kenyatta, Jomo (1894–1978), president and prime minister of Kenya, 9
- Keta Girl* (Kenneth Murray, graphite on paper, 1942; fig. 2.5), 52, 53
- Khartoum Technical Institute, 153

- Khoury, Franko, 104
- Kings College and Christ Church Cathedral School, Lagos, 295n12
- Kingsley, Mary, imperialist, 25, 63, 292n6, 292n12
- Kingsway Stores show, 141, 245
- Kirchner, Ernst Ludwig, 121, 166
- Kisch, Martin, 24
- Klee, Paul, 101
- Kneeling Woman* (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, woodcut on cream wove paper, 1914; fig. 4.17), 166, 167
- Kofi, Vincent Akweti (1923–1974), Ghanaian sculptor, 4, 159; exhibition of work of, 157, 229, described in Black Orpheus, 158, 160; member of Mbari, 149; and Ulli Beier, 177, and Denis Williams, 169; work by, 159
- kola nut (cola acuminata), 305n3
- Krauss, Rosalind, 192, 193, 195
- Kwami* (Kenneth Murray, graphite on paper, 1936; fig. 2.4), 52, 53
- Ladipo, Duro (1931–1978), Yoruba actor and playwright, 161, 302n48, 303n70
- Ladipo's Popular Bar, Station Road, Osogbo, site for Mbari-Mbayo, 303n70
- Lady* (Simon Okeke, mixed media on paper, 1965; fig. 5.26), 218
- Lagos Observer*, 27
- Lagos Weekly Record*, 25, 27, 30, 45
- Lam, Wilfredo, Cuban painter, 176, 305n100
- Lambert, Constant, 297n14
- Lambert, Isabel (also called Isabel Rawsthorne, 1912–1992), figurative avant-garde artist, 82, 297n14
- "Lament of the Silent Sisters" poem, Christopher Okigbo, 273
- Landscape with Skull and Anthill* (Bruce Onobrakpeya, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.19), 112–13, 114
- Larkin, June, 167
- Lasekan, Akinola (1916–1972): academic realism of, 166; academism of, replaced by Art Society, 129; correspondence courses at Hammersmith School of Art, London, 66; criticized abstraction, 243; member of Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Arts and Culture board, 307n8, of older generation of artists, 19, 252; painted scenes of Yoruba legends and royal portraits (fig. 2.2), 47, 48; painting served as a documentary medium, 116; political cartoons and book illustrations of, 243; popularized pictorial realism, 145; published article in Nnamdi Azikiwe's West African Pilot, 241; sedate, illustrative style of, 243; studio of, 73; and Uche Okeke, 241; works of, 48, 119
- The Last Supper* (Erhabor Emokpae, oil on board, 1963; fig. 6.8), 248, 250, 309n36
- Lawal, Babatunde, 253–54
- Lawrence, Gwendolyn Knight, 171
- Lawrence, Jacob (1917–2000) African American artist, 159, 304n92; and American Society of African Culture, organized lecture for, 237, and Mbari Ibadan shows of work, 229; exhibited at Mbari Ibadan in October 1964, 171–72; The Migration of the Negro series (1940–41), 169, 170; saw Vincent Kofi's show at Mbari-Mbayo in Osogbo, 158; shows for works by, 169, 229; and Ulli Beier, 169, 171; works of, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173
- Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 92
- Levy, Mrs. David M., 170
- Lévy-Bruhl, Lucien, 242
- Lewis, William, of Liberia, 229
- Liberato, Joao, 179
- Lopashich, Dr., 300n26
- Loram, C. T., white South African, 34
- Lourenço Marques (Maputo), capital city of Mozambique, 162
- Lowe, Maxine, 181
- Lugard, Lord Frederick: adaptationist model of his ideas, 63; age of, 28; articulated objectives of colonial education in his magnum opus Dual Mandate, 31, 292n10; and attitude toward blacks, 29, 293n27; develops theory of indirect rule, 25, wants to extend to southern Nigeria, 30; and education of natives, 26–27, 31–32, 43, 54, and Memoranda on Edu-

- cation (1919), 59; as governor general of Nigeria, 29; and indirect rule, 25, 30, 32, 292n20, critics of, 31; and John Danford, 68; and Kenneth Murray, 59–60, 63, 68; Nigeria formed under regime of, 25; rejection by Colonial Office of request to suppress press, 30, 293n27; rule of, infernal, 293n13, damnable, 30, terrible, 25–26; teaching British history in Nigerian schools, 32; type of native he feared, 35; wanted to preserve indigenous political systems, 29–30
- Lunch at the Park* (Oseloka Osadebe, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.24), 119, 120
- Macaulay, Herbert (1864–1946): declaration regarding Aina Onabolu's art, 45; early black nationalist, 2, 28–29
- MacLaren, Mrs., 300n26
- Madonna and Child* (Uche Okeke, 1961), 101
- Madubuike, Ihechukwu, literary critic, 240
- Majekodunmi, Dr. Moses Adekoyejo, 141
- Majekodunmi, Nora: chair of the Lagos branch of the arts council, 141, 307n8; frictions with artists Uche Okeke and Demas Nwoko, 230–31, 301n30; member of Lagos social elite, 235; and Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, 141; waning influence in Lagos's and Nigeria's political and social institutions of, 233
- Makerere College, Kampala, Uganda, 61
- Malangatana, Valente (Malangatana Valente Ngwenya, 1935–2011), Mozambican artist: article about in Black Orpheus, 162, 165; autobiography of, 162; exhibition of work at Mbari Ibadan, 162; and Julian Beinart, 162, 165; and Pancho Guedes, 161–62; and postcolonial subject, 162; work of, 162; and Ulli Beier, 162, 165
- Malevich, Kazimir, Russian avant-garde Suprematist painter, 245
- Man Hanging from a Tree* (Jimo Akolo, oil on board, 1963; fig. 5.30), 223, 224
- Man with Two Wives* (Bruce Onobrakpeya, oil on board, 1965; fig. 5.20), 209, 211
- Mary Trumbull Adams Art Fund, 219
- The Masquerade* (J. P. Clark, theatrical work, 1964), 151, 306n1
- Matisse, Henri, 121
- Matsubara, Naoko (born 1937), Japanese printmaker: exhibition of works, 181; works by, 180
- Matta, Roberto, Chilean surrealist painter, 176, 305n100
- Mazrui, Ali, 10, 240
- Mbari Artists and Writers Club, Ibadan: description of activities of, 149–51; exhibitions and workshops at, 17; forum of mid-twentieth-century African and black artistic and literary modernism, 2–3; founded by Ulli Beier, 132
- Mbari Enugu (established 1963): formation of, 19, 181; history of, 261, 263; rise of, 259; scenes at, 262
- Mbari Ibadan, 183; and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 208; closest thing to Enwonwu's "coffee bar" milieu, 241; elitist space, 161; exhibitions at, 132, 161, 257, Colette Omogbai's, 253, 309n42, Jacob Lawrence's, 169, 171, Jimo Akolo's, 220, most ambitious: Karl Schmidt-Rottluff's, 165, 304n79; fortunes of, 177; founding member Christopher Okigbo, 240, 264; friends and colleagues at, 265; and Ibrahim El Salahi, 4; inaugural art exhibition at, 152; inspired by political independence and its implied freedoms, 263; and invocation of Igbo mbari, 150; members of, 304n92; organizes terra-cotta sculpture workshop, 204; partnered with American Society of African Culture, 229; plays at, 201; and Uche Okeke, 181, 265, mural of, at, 185, 186
- Mbari-Mbayo, the Mbari Club at Osogbo: brainchild of Duro Ladipo (1931–1978), 161; and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 208; established, 302n48; Ladipo's Popular Bar site of, 303n70; nickname of Mbari Club at Osogbo, 161; scenes at, 159, 209; and Vincent Kofi's shows, 157
- Mbembe, Achille, 26
- McEwen, Frank, convened First International Congress of African Culture, 216

- Meeting* (Afi Ekong, oil on canvas, 1960; fig. 6.2), 232
- Mehta, Tyeb, progressive Indian modernist, 298n29, 300n22
- Melancholy* (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, 1914), 166
- Memorandum of 1925, 43
- Mercer, Kobena, 13
- Merchants of Light School, Oba, 298n21
- Meredith, Owen, 47
- metropolitan France (mainland France), 91
- The Migration of the Negro* series (Jacob Lawrence, 1940/41), 169, 170
- The Migration of the Negro, No. 22* (Jacob Lawrence, tempera on gesso on composition board, 1940–1941; fig. 4.19), 170
- Millard, Patrick, British landscape painter, 82
- Miró, Joan, 101
- modernism, modernists: and Africa, 132, 133, 169, 289; and Aina Onabolu, 42, his colonial, 17, 133, 140, 145; and Akinola Lasekan, 145; Art Society, 129, 168, 263; and Ben Enwonwu, 145, 241, 258, 263; and black, 175; and Black Orpheus, 134, 136, 160; British figurative, 130, midcentury, 121; and Demas Nwoko, 201; early, 127, twentieth-century, 210; defining, inspired by experience of colonization, racial discrimination, and encounter between Western modernity and indigenous cultures, 152; and Egyptian, 172; and Erhabor Emokpae, 245, 252; and European, 100, 108, 127, 130, 134, 137, 153, 165, 166, 169, 177, 241, art and artists, 106, art form or style, 136, avant-garde, 101, 129, and later, 99, painters, 110, painting, 119, poetry, 240, stylistic sensibility, 126; figurative sculpture, 219; and Gebre Kristos Desta, 226; Geeta Kapur called “modernist universalism,” 89; heritage, 184; Indian, 138; and India’s first avant-garde, 137; international, 140, styles, 128; and Jimo Akolo, 226; and Kenneth Murray, 140; and Mbari Enugu, 263; and Mbari Ibadan, 150; and natural synthesis, 91, 127; and negritude philosophy at the École des Arts, Dakar, 97; Nigerian, 126, 132, 133, 138, 140, 141, 201, 258, 259–60, 289; and Nigerian art, 77, and Egyptian counterparts, 88; and painting, 101, styles, 154; Parisian, 127, 134, 172; of Paul Gauguin, 112; and Roy Barker, 77; and Simon Okeke, 216; and Sudanese and Arab, 172; tendency to disassociate from nationalism, 78; tradition of sculptors as Constantin Brancusi and Henry Moore, 158; and Uche Okeke, 196, 201; and Ulli Beier, 132, 136–38, 140, 153, 154, 158, 160, 161, 166, 168, and Jacob Lawrence, 171; and Vincent Kofi, 158; Western, 78, 90, 137; and Wilson Tiberio, 160–61. See also premodernism; postcolonial modernism
- Modigliani, Amedeo, 116
- Monster* (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1961; fig. 3.8), 99, 100
- Montagu, Lord (Edwin Samuel Montagu), secretary of state for India at the British House of Parliament, 25
- “Moonlight,” Uche Okeke (1960), 86
- Moore, Aduke, Lagos lawyer, 233, 300n26, 307n14
- Moore, Gerald, English instructor, Ibadan, extra-mural studies program, 160–61, 257
- Moore, Henry, 75, 158, 165
- Moore-Gilbert, Bart, 13
- Mother* (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, 1916), 166
- Mother Nigeria* (Uche Okeke, mural painted on straw mat support, 1960), 143
- Mount, Marshall Ward, art historian, 216
- Mozart, Wolfgang Amadeus, 197
- Mphahlele, Ezekiel (later known as Es’kia Mphahlele), South African writer, 14; African representative to Congress for Cultural Freedom in Paris, 303n42; argued against gradualism in liberation of southern Africa, 88; exile living in Nigeria, 149; president of Mbari Ibadan, 151
- Mrs. Spencer Savage* (Aina Onabolu, portrait painting, 1906), 45
- Munch, Edvard, 166
- mural (Demas Nwoko, Arts and Crafts pavilion, Nigeria Exhibition, Lagos, 1960; fig. 4.6), 143, 144, 301n28, 301n30

- Murray, Kenneth C. (1903–1972): adaptationist ideas of, 132; and Aina Onabolu, 16, 40–43, 47, 51, 52, 54, 62, 64, 68–69, 140; and Ananda Coomaraswamy, 56; and Ben Enwonwu, 242, 296n4; and Black Orpheus, 233; British art teacher, 16, 39, 52, 68; colonial models established in Nigeria by, 160; colonial modernism of, 17, 140; criticized African artist seeking mastery of stylistic modes and pictorial techniques of precubist era, 52; development as an educator, 57; disapproval of modernism's nonspiritual basis, 55; educational (pedagogical) ideas of, 59–60, 61–62, 65, 73, 129; encounter with Franz Cizek's ideas, 55–56; established ethnographic museums, 78; fashioned new arts and crafts curriculum that became model for southern Nigerian schools from early 1930s onward, 52, basis of contemporary African creative authenticity, 91; followers of fail to identify with formal experimentation of European avant-garde, 138; and Francesca M. Wilson, 55; and Frederick Lugard, 59–60, 63; and George A. Stevens, 62; graduate of Birmingham School of Art in England, 52, 55; and indirect rule, 59, 68; influence of, 66; insistence on technical art education for production of craft, 27, 41–42; invested in recovering native art traditions and in training artists whose work would satisfy needs of rural and city dwellers, 54; and Joseph E. Barton, 55, 295n18; and Margaret Trowell, 61–62; misunderstanding of his art education in scholarly literature, 54–55; naive naturalism of his school, 54; nativism of, 41; Nigerian writer, 302n43; 1937 exhibition of paintings and sculptures organized by, at the Zwemmer Gallery, London, for his students, 57, 66; and Ola Oloidi, 295n26; and Olu Oguibe, 296n34; primitivist imagination of, 63–64; recommended apprenticeship with master traditional carvers for those who wished to practice professionally, 54; role in developing modern art in Nigeria, 64; and Sir William Rothenstein, 57; students of, 145, 148; teaching and ideas about African art in era of colonization, 59, 62–63; vision of African art, 40, 90, of modern Nigerian art of, 31, 40; work as an art teacher, importance of, 64; works of, 21, 53, 238
- Museum of Modern Art, New York: collections of, 167, 170, 176; Committee on Prints and Illustrated Books Fund, 167; founding director of, 216; 1956 exhibition of paintings and prints by Keffi Boys, 85
- My American Friend* (Erhabor Emokpae, oil on board, ca. 1957; fig. 6.5), 245, 246
- National Committee of the Nigerian Arts Council meeting, May 31, 1963, 307n12
- National Council for Arts and Culture, Abuja (NCAC), 148; Abuja collection, 58, 67, 144, 249
- National Council for Arts and Culture, Lagos, 212
- National Gallery of Art, Lagos, 145
- National Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C., 173
- National Museum of African Art, Smithsonian Institution, 104
- National Museum, Lagos, 216, 231
- nationalism, nationalist(s): African, 33, 34, 154, 239, movements, 95, political, 29, visions of modernity, 21; and Aina Onabolu's art, 47; anticolonial, 14; and Art Society, 168, 260; and Ben Enwonwu, 77; and Benedict Anderson's study of, 9; Chatterjee's Indian, 10; colonial subjectivity, 8; continental, 37; crises in body politic by mid-1960s stifled thrust of developments in art, 263; crises of postindependence, 14; cultural, 2, 6, 16, 19, 27, 42, 259, 260, African, 11; Demas Nwoko, 208, and soldiers, 280; early, 41, and education, 22; early black nationalists Edward Blyden and Herbert Macaulay, 2, 28; early-twentieth-century radical, 8; elite, 45, educated, 51, political, 50; ethnic, authenticity, 207, in Nigerian politics, 143, strong, 208; Igbo, 274; impulse, an eager-

- nationalism, nationalist(s) (continued)
 ness to claim diverse ethnic cultures and traditions as part of collective national heritage, 86; Indian, 138; and J. E. Casely-Hayford, 36; James Coleman and “regionalization of nationalism,” 207; and Jomo Kenyatta et al., 9; and Kolawole Balogun, 229; and Lagos press, 27; negative influence of ideology on artistic creativity, 126; in Nigeria, 289; and Nnamdi Azikiwe, 35, 294n42; and Obafemi Awolowo, 294n42, 306n18; pilgrim cultural, 10; political, 92, ideologies and identity politics, 9; politicians, 88, important, 87; popular nationalist backlash against colonial regime, 75; radical(ist), 27, 31, 33, 293n15; and Sir William Rothenstein’s critique of Parisian abstraction, 242; struggles of early-twentieth-century Nigeria, 47; subjectivity in Nigeria, 207, and Yusuf Grillo, 207; tendency to dissociate modernism from, 78; unified art, 18; voices of, 40; West African, 45, 138; work of Nigeria’s political, 89. See also proto-nationalists
- Native Administration Works Department, 59
- natural synthesis, 88–93, 127–30; and Art Society, 5, 17, 18, 41, 88, 89, 99, 127, 128, 129, 130, 141, 183–84, 215, 220, 252; and Demas Nwoko, 215, his Soldier, 285; and Kenneth Murray, 41, 90–91; prescribed a different approach, 98; selective use of artistic resources and forms from Nigerian/African and European traditions, 1; and Simon Okeke’s work, 215, own interpretation of theory of, 217; and Uche Okeke, articulated by, 4–5, 17, 90, 141, claims about, 126, emphasis on exploration and adaptation of indigenous Nigerian art forms, 99, formalist interpretation of, 219, formulation of, 89, 92, 93, 95, 96, ideological basis of, 220, realized implications of, 18, theoretical model, 207, theory of, 41, 186, thoughts on, 98
- NCAAC. See Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Art and Culture
- Ndefo, Roland (1924–1999), 298n21
- Ndiaye, Iba (1928–2008), Senegalese painter, 226
- negritude, 2, 242; Aimé Césaire and, 95–96, 133, 299n4; arguments of, 17; and Art Society, 96, 98–99, 132; and Ben Enwonwu, 239; and Black Orpheus, 299n4; concerned with revivification of universal black soul and black experience, 96; ethos, 134; founders of, 131; invented in Paris during interwar period, 95; and Janheinz Jahn, 132; and Jean-Paul Sartre, 91, 93, 96, 133; Léopold Sédar Senghor, 97, 242, 299n4; movement, 92, 133; and natural synthesis, 96; and Papa Ibra Tall, 98, 226; poetry, 91, 93, 96, 133; poets, 128; political and cultural ideologies associated, 18; proponents of, 11; and Skunder Boghossian, 176; Susanne Wenger’s visual, 134, 136; “tactical root finding” of, 132; and Uche Okeke, 93, 96, 98; and Ulli Beier, 161
- negrophilia, 96
- Neuberger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy R., 170
- Neue Sachlichkeit painting in Germany, 109
- New Currents, Ancient Rivers* (Jean Kennedy, 1992), 6
- The Newark Museum, 48, 191
- Ngozi, Carolyn, 104
- Ngwenya, Malangatana Valente (1936–2011), Mozambican painter and poet. See Malangatana, Valente Ngwenya
- Niger Mission, British, 25
- Nigercol*, students’ magazine, 86, 299n52
- Nigeria* (magazine): and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 210; editor of, Michael Crowder, 141, 257; general-interest journal during the colonial period, 18; increasing critical discourse in, 258; 1965 publication of Colette Omogbai’s historic manifesto in, 228, 254, 256; organized Simon Okeke’s exhibition, 216; originated with Nigerian Teacher, established in 1933, 309n47, provided critical space for art discussions in 1960s, 257; Lagos review of Nigerian Art Exhibition of 1960, 146, 148; and Ulli

- Beier, 134, art review of Demas Nwoko's work, 140; and Yusufu Zaki, reader of magazine, 248
- Nigeria* 14 (1938), 58, 67
- Nigeria* 68 (March 1961), 144, 146, 148
- Nigeria in 1959* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1960; fig. 3.15), 107, 109, 110, 283
- "Nigerian Art and Artists," Okechukwu Odita essay, 86
- Nigerian Art Academy, founded 1961, 236
- Nigerian Art Exhibition (1948), 66
- Nigerian Art Exhibition (1960), 140–48, 228; and Ben Enwonwu, 234; works at, 143–44, 210
- Nigerian Arts Council, Lagos branch, 19
- Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology (NCAST; called Zaria), Zaria, 1, 16, 297n6, 299n56; African personality, 93–95, and negritude, 95–8; Art Department at, 72–73, 75–78, 82–5; artists at, 141–42, 148, 153, postcollege from, 227, 228, young artists at, 19, 147; Art Society at, 42, 85–88, art of, 99–101, 103, and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 112–13, and Demas Nwoko, 106–12, 151, formed at, 2, history of, 17, Igbo Uli, 184–86, 189, 192–93, 194–96, 265, postcollege, 184, 196–98, 200–2, 203–5, 207–8, 220, 236, 277, students at, other, 115–16, and Uche Okeke, 6, 18, 65, 99–106, 124, 151, work of, 116, 119, 121, 124, 126; art students at, 79; educators at, 153, 238, 297n12; exhibition at, 72; graduates of, 18, 237, 241, 243, 252, 253, 256, 257, 306n1, class of 1961, 149; history of, 71–72; and Jimo Akolo, postcollege work of, 221, 224; and natural synthesis, 88–93, 126–30; new work from, 242; and Nora Majekodunmi, 141; and Simon Okeke, postcollege work of, 215–17, 219–20; students from, 208, 209, 210, 297n12; Ulli Beier and, 138, 140, and authenticity of work at, 147, believed art coming from part of nascent international phenomenon, 153; work of Art Society students after graduating from, 183
- The Nigerian College of Technology Art Exhibition*, 72
- Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Art and Culture, Lagos (NCAAC), 140, 260
- Nigerian Electric Commission, Lagos, 229
- Nigerian Festival of the Arts, colonial era event, 229, 297n20
- Nigerian Teacher*, established in 1933, 309n47
- Nigerian Youth Movement (NYM), 207
- Night Flight of Dread and Delight* (Skunder Boghossian, oil on canvas with collage, 1964), 177, 178
- Nimo, ancestral hometown of Uche Okeke, 184, 299n50
- Nkobi, J., 236
- Nkrumah, Kwame (1909–1972), leading pan-Africanist: and African personality, 128; and consciencism, 291n15; first president of Ghana, 94; and honorific "Osa-gyefo," 9; and pan-Africanism, 9, leading, 94; studied in United States rather than England, 294n43
- Nok culture, 196, 203; and Demas Nwoko, 196, 201, 203, 204, 205, 207, 208, 283, sculptures, 201, 207, 285; figures, 203; terra-cottas, 203, 204, 205; and Uche Okeke regarding Simon Okeke, 217
- Nolde, Emil, 166
- Northern Horsemen* (Jimo Akolo, oil on canvas, 1965), 224, 225
- Nsofor, Anthony, 119, 247
- Nsukka, first major theater of Biafran War, 279
- Nsukka School: famous for exploration of Igbo Uli and other West African traditional graphic forms, 5; and Obiora Udechukwu, 153; Uche Okeke, head of art school at, 4, 5, reputation as doyen there, 6, work of there, 153
- Nun* (Agnaldo dos Santos, wood, ca. late 1950s), 177, 179
- Nwagbara, Ogbonnaya (1934–1985), 85, 261
- Nwakanma, Obi, literary scholar, 264
- Nwanyi Mgbolod'ala, legendary Igbo Amazon, 274
- Nwoko, Demas (born 1935), 297n20, 297n21, 307n15; adopted a vivid expressionistic style, 106; became de facto leading voices of new generation of artists, 143; believed in Nigerian national imaginary, 277; and Biafran War, 279, and artwork of, 280–85, and soldier, 280–81, 283, 285; and Christopher Okigbo's poetry, 265; and civil war, 277; concerned about implications and impact of political decolonization on work, 14; and crises of the late 1960s in the Nigerian postcolony, 265, 278–81, 283, 285; and crisis paintings of 1967, 278; and Denis Williams, 204; designed the stage set for Mozart's opera Die Entführung aus dem Serail, 197; developed figural style, 18; drew ire of Michael Crowder and Nora Majekodunmi, 141, 230; essay on in Black Orpheus, 138, 140, 148; frictions with Nora Majekodunmi, 230–31, 301n30; friends of, 85; at Galerie Lambert, Paris, 197; graduated from Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, Zaria, 83, 88, 149, post-college, 184, 196–98, 200–202, 203–5, 207–8, 220, 277, work at, 106–12, 151; helped found Mbari Artists and Writers Club at Ibadan, 132, executed mural at, 143, 144, 301n28, 301n30, member of, 149, organized the arts section at Nigerian Art Exhibition, 1960, 141, 151, 230; and imaginary Igbo world, 197; and Igbo mbari complex, 289; and Jimo Akolo, 220; joined theater arts faculty at University of Ibadan, 201, and meeting to discuss formation of Nigerian Art Academy, 236; Mbari Artists and Writers Club, Ibadan, helped found, 132; at Mbari exhibition, 151, 152, 184; moved to more baroque figuration, 283; and nationalism, 208; native of Idumuje-Ugboko, an Igbo town, 311n29; and natural synthesis, 215, 285; Nigerian architect, 5, 306n13, 311n303; and Nok culture, 201, 203, 204, 205, 207, 208, 283, 285; part of an avant-garde, 14, 149, a new transdisciplinary group of Nigerian visual and literary artists, 149, part of discourse, 265, political art of, 259; Nigeria magazine article, 146, 147; and oyoyo (also called ogbanje in Igbo and abiku in Yoruba), 268; and postcolonial role of art in state and, 288, work of, 286; and postcolony, 288; produced sets and costumes for Mbari Ibadan plays, 201; and Radio Nigeria interview, 141; raised stakes and expanded the meaning of political in postcolonial modernism, 286, 288; read about European modern artists, 99; received scholarship from French embassy to travel to France, 184, spent nine months studying there, 196; and sculpture workshop at Mbari Ibadan, 204, devised a sunken outdoor kiln similar to bowl furnace at, 204; and Simon Okeke, 220; studied French postimpressionists, 112; and Uche Okeke, 85; and Ulli Beier, Black Orpheus essay, 138, 140, 148, 154; wanted Nigerian nation, 208; won silver cup for best all-around entry in art in Western Regional Festival of Arts, 85

Nwoko, Demas (continued)

Nwoko, Demas, works by: 106–12, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 143, 144, 196, 197, 197–98, 199, 200, 200–205, 203, 205, 206, 207, 263, 279, 280, 280, 281, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 285, 286, 287, 311n32; formal syntheses evident in, 217, and search for new formal modes to characterize their defining work in light of political situation, 259, on theme of Adam and Eve, 18, 199, 200, 200, 203; show disillusion about prospects of new nation, 19; significance of, 207; style of, 243; and Zikist Movement, 208

Nza the Smart (Uche Okeke, pen and ink, 1958; fig. 3.12), 101, 103, 105

Nzekwu, Onuora (born 1928; Nigerian writer), 306n1; editor of Nigeria magazine, 1962 to 1966, 18, 233, 257, 309n48; inaugural novel of, 257; joined Biafran cultural workshops, 309n50; member of board of Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Arts and Culture, 307n8; wrote "Our Authors and Performing Artists," 1966, 258

Obiagio, Mr. and Mrs. Joe, collection, 218

Obong of Calabar, royal house of, 231

Obumselu, Ben, critic, 264

- “October ’66,” suite of poems, Wole Soyinka, 264
- Odetta (Odetta Holmes), 169
- Odita, Okechukwu (born 1936): and Art Society, 85, became secretary of, 298n22; debt to continental European modernism, 121; and essay in Nigercol, 86; and influence of Clifford Frith on, 119; and influence of early European avant-garde on, 115; and Okpu Eze, 119, 121; and Ose- loka Osadebe, 297n21; works of, 119, 120, 121, 123
- odu eke* (python’s tail) (Uli), 305n3
- Off to Battle* (Simon Okeke, mixed media, 1963; fig. 5.27), 219
- ogbanje* (called oyoyo in Igbo; abiku in Yoruba), 268, 272
- Ogboni Chief* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, 1960; fig. 3.14), 107, 108
- Ogu Umunwanyi* (“women’s revolt,” or “women’s war”), 311n23
- Ogui Players, founded by John Ekwere, 310n3
- Oguiibe, Olu, 64, 296n34
- Ogunde, Hubert, Bread and Bullet (1954) and Yoruba Ronu (1964), 286, 307n8, 311n33
- Ojike, Mbonu, 294n43
- Ojora, Mr. Kunle, 233
- Okafor, Dubem, literary scholar, 264
- okala isinwaqji*, motif abstracted from space at the head of three-lobed kola nut (Uli), 305n3
- Okara, Gabriel (born 1921), Nigerian poet and novelist, Writer’s Club, 261, 309n50, 310n3
- Okeke, Simon Obiekezie (1937–1969), 79, 215–17, 219–20, 307n15; and Afi Ekong, 231; and Akinola Lasekan, 241; appointed curator of National Museum, Lagos, 216; and Art Society, 85, 220, elected president of, 85, resigned as, 298n22; believed that the Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Arts and Culture denied Nigerian artists access to more desirable US art markets, 231; Benin and, 217; came from Awka district, in eastern region of Nigeria, 297n20; delivered paper at First International Congress of African Culture, 216; difference between his work and that of Uche Okeke and Demas Nwoko, 220; exhibition organized by Nigeria magazine, 216; and Harmon Foundation, New York, 307n12; and Ife art, 217; and Igbo-Ukwu art, 217, work bound to ancient art of, 219; invited to organize an exhibition of Nigerian and African American artists at J. K. Randle Hall in Lagos, 229, to submit work for Kingsway Stores show, 141; and Jean Kennedy, 217, 219; and modernism, 216; natural synthesis and his work, 215, 219; and Nigerian Art Academy, 236; and Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology (NCAST), Zaria, postcollege work of, 215–17, 219–20; and Nok culture, 217; one of Nigeria’s most renown artists, 306n1; relied on techniques and styles borrowed from early modern Western art, 18; and Uche Okeke, 217, 220; and Ulli Beier, 147, 196; works of, 218, 219, 289
- Okeke, Uche (born 1933), 14, 142; and African personality, 95, 96; and Aina Onabolu, 129; ancestral hometown of, 184, 299n50; in art department at Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, Zaria, 85; and Art Society, 88, formation of, 85, as president, 298n22, selected as secretary, 85; and avant-garde, Demas Nwoko and their cohorts constitute, 14; and Ben Enwonwu, 86, 220, 236; came from Awka district, in eastern region of Nigeria, 297n20; collected Igbo oral literatures, 79; contributed to “Nigerian Art and Artists,” 86; de facto leading voice of new generation of artists, 143; and Demas Nwoko, 85, frictions with Nora Majekodunmi, 230–31, 301n30, at Galerie Lambert, Paris, 197, at Mbari exhibition, 151, 152, 184, and oyoyo, 268, and postcolony, 288; and Dennis Duerden, art critic, 185; directed British Council’s Art Club, 310n3; and disagreement with Africans copying European artists, 127–28; disillusioned about prospects of new nation, 19; drew ire of Michael Crowder and Nora Majekodunmi, 141, 230; El Anatsui, intellectual connections to, 4; established Cultural Center, Kafanchan, 185, 261; and folktales, 105, 106, 192, Igbo, 103, 112; graduate of 1961 class at Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, Zaria, 83, 88, 149; had successful one-person exhibition at Jos Museum in 1956, 85; and Igbo folklore, 196, traditional mural and body art, 101; and Igbo Uli, Oja Series, 14, 18; invited to submit work for Kingsway Stores show, 141; involved in discussions with Demas Nwoko and Simon Obiekezie Okeke on forming Nigerian art society, 85; and Jimo Akolo, 124; Mbari Artists and Writers Club, Ibadan, helped found, 132, member of, 149; Mbari Ibadan, 181, 265, mural of, at, 185, 186; member of Aghama Youth Club of Fine Arts, 65; and modernism, 196, 201; and natural synthesis, articulated by, 4–5, 17, 90, 141, claims about, 126, emphasis on exploration and adaptation of indigenous Nigerian art forms, 99, formalist interpretation of, 219, formulation of, 89, 92, 93, 95, 96, ideological basis of, 220, realized implications of, 18, theoretical model, 207, theory of, 41, 95, 186, thoughts on, 98; and negritude, 93, 96, 98; and Nigerian Art Exhibition (1960), 140, 143, 146, 147; and Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, 6, 18, 65, 99–106, 124, 151, Igbo Uli, 184–86, 189, 192–93, 194–96, 265, postcollege, 220, 236, work at, 116, 119, 121, 124, 126; and Nok culture, regarding Simon Okeke, 217; Nsukka School, head of art school at, 4, 5, reputation as doyen there, 6, work of there, 153; and pan-Africanism, 98–99; and post-colonial self, 93, modern art and, 196, part of discourse, 265, role of art in state and, 288, work of, 286; poetry by, 86, 130; practicing Roman Catholic, 11; publications by, 86; published articles in Nigercol, 86; read about work of European modern artists beginning with symbolists, post-impressionists, 99; retrospective exhibition of (1963), 6; studied work of French postimpressionists, 112; Uli-influenced drawing and painting, 205; and Ulli Beier, 140, 147, 196; went on ten-day study tour of southern Nigeria, 78

- Okeke, Uche (continued)
- Okeke, Uche, drawings: Birds in Flight, 195; experimental, 18, 105; The Fabled Brute, 103; figure-ground aspects of, 196; folk-tale quality of, 106; Munich Suite drawings, 192; Nza the Smart, 101, 103, 105, Oja Series, 14, Owls, 192; poetic quality of, 195; and Uli as python, 194; Uli-inspired drawings on paper, 265, 273
- Okeke, Uche, examples of, 190–91; use of agwọlagwọ spiral, 194; works of, 99–106, 100, 102, 103, 104, 105, 110, 124, 143, 184–86, 189, 192–93, 195, 196, 205, 207, 208, 266, 268, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 277
- Okeke, Uche, paintings: Aba Revolt (Women's War), 272, 274, 275, 277; Conflict (After Achebe), 272, 273; Crucifixion, 266
- Okigbo, Christopher (1930–1967), lyric poet: accused of copying European modernist poetry, 240; African writer, 14; and Demas Nwoko, 265; founding member of Mbari Ibadan, 240, 264; member of Mbari Artists and Writers Club, Ibadan, 149; member of Mbari Club, 19; opposed to illiterate (i.e., nonart school) types making art, 303n71; poetry of, 14, 19, 260, 263–64, 265, 271, 273, 310n6, 310n8; sympathized with Obafemi Awolowo, opposition party leader, 264
- Okolobia, poem, Uche Okeke, 90, 99
- Okri, Ben, novel, The Famished Road (1991), 271–72, 310n13
- Olaosebikan, William (life dates unknown): and Art Society, 85; graduation of, 298n22; and Jimo Akolo, 297n20; mentored by Dennis Duerden, 297n20
- Old Khartoum School in the Sudan, 4, 153, 172; artists of, 157
- Oloidi, Ola, 295n26
- Olokun (sculpture covered with copper coins, Erhabor Emokpae, c. 1967), 212
- Olokun, Yoruba goddess, 299n9

- Oloogun* (Yusuf Grillo, oil on board, 1960; fig. 3.20), 115
- Olusola, Segun, Nigerian writer, 302n43, 302n51
- Omegie, Ikpomwosa (dates unknown), 298n21
- Omogbai, Colette (born 1942), painter from Zaria: arrival on Lagos scene added new feminist dimension to discourse of modern art in Nigeria, 253; and Babatunde Lawal's criticism, 253–54; and Erhabor Emokpae, 256; exhibitions at Mbari Ibadan, 253, 309n42; identified herself as a surrealist, 252; irreverent painter, 19; Nigeria (magazine), publication of her historic manifesto in, 228, 254, 256; Ulli Beier and her paintings, 252, 253; works of, 253, 254, 255, 289
- "On National Culture" (Frantz Fanon, essay, 1959), 98
- Onabamiro, Dr., 151
- Onabolu, Aina (1882–1963), 294n6; and A. O. Osula, 64–65; absent from Nigerian Art Exhibition (1960), 145; academic realism of, 166; "academism" of, 47, 51, 64, 129; and African artists seeking literary education equivalent of art training emblemized by his career, 27; and Akinola Lasekan, 66; and anticolonialism, 40, 41; and Art Society, 42, 129; as art teacher, 50–51, 54, 62, 64, 295n12; attended meeting to discuss formation of Nigerian Art Academy, 236, elected president, 236; and avant-garde, 39, European, 138; and Benedict Anderson, 47; and colonial models established in Nigeria by, 160; and colonial modernism of, 17, 133, 140, 145; critical role of in development of Nigerian modern art, 64; demand for British art teacher, 68–69; and discourses on modern Nigerian art he initiated in 1920, 238; and Herbert Macaulay's declaration regarding his art, 45; and Kenneth C. Murray, 16, 40–43, 47, 51, 52, 54, 62, 64, 68–69, 140; on Kingsway Stores exhibition selection committee, 141; looked to premodern tradition, 129; member of board of Nigerian Council for the Advancement of Arts and Culture, 307n8; and mission of National Arts Council, 233; and modern art, approach to too naturalistically "Victorian," 148, task of, 45; and modernism, 42, 51; nationalism and his art, 47; naturalistic, colonial-era portrait paintings of, 8; and postcolonial modernism, 40, 69; promotion of "high art" values, 47; role of in articulating symbolic production of postcolonial self, 288; saw no pictorial grandeur in Yoruba or Nigerian history or myths, 45, 47; students and admirers called him "Nigeria's Joshua Reynolds" and "Mr. Perspective," 295n10; studio of, 73, 306n1; trained in London and in Paris (at Académie Julian), 45; and Uche Okeke, 129; and vision of a Nigerian art academy, 73; and Western academic tradition, 47; work of, 21, 39, as art teacher, 50–51, 54, 62, 64, as a part of the radical work of emergent anticolonialism, 40, discussion of, 45, 47, 49–51, literary, 43, 44, preempted postcolonial modernism of midcentury, 40, reassessments of, 51; works of, 45, 46
- Onobrakpeya, Bruce (born 1932), 142, 209, 297n20, 307n15; and Art Society, 113, 208, elected treasurer, 85; attended meeting to discuss forming Nigerian Art Academy, 236; and Benin sculpture, 215; bronze-lino, technique developed by, 210; collected folktales, 112; completed eleven paintings commissioned by United African Company for Ionian Sports event in Ondo in 1957, 85; and concerns about implications and impact of political decolonization on thematic and stylistic directions of his work, 14; and Demas Nwoko, 112; and Edo sculptural forms and motifs, 209; and Erhabor Emokpae and Araldite®, 212; featured on Nigerian Television Service, 237; and Federal Society for the Arts and Humanities, 235; and folk narratives, 210; and formal syntheses evident in the work of, 217; graduated in 1961, 88; helped organize art section of

- Onobrakpeya, Bruce (continued)
 Nigerian Art Exhibition, 141; and “hydrochloric acid accident,” 212; and Ibrahim El Salahi, 153, 302n54; as illustrator using geometric shapes, bold decorative patterns, and schematically rendered forms, 143; invited to submit work for the Kingsway Stores show, 141; and Julian Beinart, 209; made copperplate engravings and etchings, 212; and Mbari Ibadan, 208; and Mbari-Mbayo, the Mbari Club at Osogbo, 208; and mural painting, 143, 144, 147; and natural synthesis, 215; and Nigeria magazine, 210; and Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, 112–13; one of Nigeria’s and Africa’s most influential artists, 5; painting and printmaking studio, 306n1, in Palmgrove area of Lagos, 212; and Paul Gauguin, 112; and plastrograph, term invented by, 214; popularized pictorial realism, 145; practicing Roman Catholic, 11; printmaking of, 208–10, 212, 214–15; received national renown for several notable book illustrations, 210; and Ru van Rossem, 209; and Ulli Beier, 140, 146; and Urhobo, 208, 209, adire textile design, 209, 215, ritual art, 215, and Yoruba art, 18; work of, 289, discussed, 208–10, 212, 214–15; works of, 112–13, 113, 114, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, covered way mural, 143, 144, 301n28, 301n30, forest scenes recur in, 112; and workshops, 208–9
- Onwuchekwa, Jemie, literary critic, 240
- Opa Oranyan, iron-studded monolith, at Ife, 78
- Orizu, Nwafor, 294n43
- Osadebe, Oseloka (born 1935), 262; in art department at Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, Zaria, 85; and Art Society, 115; debt to continental European modernism, 121; work of, 121, exhibition of, 262, indebted to European avant-garde, 116, 119; works of, 119, 120, 121, 124, 297n21
- Osague, Francis (b. 1941), 301n35
- “Osagyefo,” honorific for Kwame Nkrumah (1909–1972), 9
- Osawe, Ben (1931–2007), Nigerian sculptor, 181
- Osifo, Osagie, Nigerian sculptor, 147, 301n35
- Osogbo, Yoruba town northeast of Ibadan, 161, 171; gallery of, 257; Mbari-Mbayo in, 157, 159, 208, 209, established, 302n48, site of, 303n70; Osun cult in, 134; Sango shrine at, 304n82
- Osula, A. O.: founded Aghama Youth Club of Fine Arts, 64–65; 1952 prediction of emergence of artists whose work would result from a synthesis of Western and local art traditions and styles, 89, 91; pointed to next logical phase of modern Nigerian art, 65–66
- Ottenberg, Simon, 48, 191
- Otter Gallery, University of Chichester, England, 53
- “Our Authors and Performing Artists” (Onuora Nzekwu, 1966), 258
- Owerri Igbo (people), 150
- Oxford City Technical School (now Oxford Brookes University), England, 231
- Oye-Ekiti workshop, Father Kevin Carroll’s workshop at, 145
- oyoyo (also called ogbanje in Igbo and abiku in Yoruba), 268
- Oyoyo (Uche Okeke, oil on board, 1965; fig. 7.8), 266, 268, 270, 271, 272
- Padamsee, Akbar, progressive Indian modernist, 298n29
- Painting and Environment: Nigeria, Uganda*, Whitechapel Art Gallery, exhibition, summer 1964, 221
- Paintings by Nigerian Schoolboys*, exhibition at MoMA, New York, 1956, 297n19
- The Palm-Wine Drinkard* (Amos Tutuola, 1952), 151, 177
- pan-Africanism/pan-Africanist: advocates of, 2; and “African personality,” 93; and Art Society, 99, work of, 18; and Ben Enwonwu, 239; conference on, 242, 306n14; disseminated through Ulli Beier, Black Orpheus, 99, 133, and Mbari Club, 17; and Kwame Nkrumah, 9, 94; of Marcus Garvey, 16, 35, 37; movement, 34, 35; of

- Nnamdi Azikiwe, 16, 35, 89, 207; outlook of early-twentieth-century politicians, 207; and Renascent Africa (Nnamdi Azikiwe), 36; “tactical root finding” of, 132; and Uche Okeke, 98–99; of W. E. B. Du Bois, 16, 35, 37, 89, force behind establishment of, 33–34
- pan-Nigerian, 47, 207
- pan-Yoruba cultural associations, 294n42
- Patel, Jeram, progressive Indian modernist, 298n29
- Path of Thunder* (Christopher Okigbo’s poetry collection), 14, 263–64, 271
- Pechstein, Max, 166, 168
- Peirce, Charles Sanders, 193
- Penrose, Roland, cofounder of Institute of Contemporary Arts, London, 216
- Phelps-Stokes Fund Commission, 34, 43, 294n37
- Philosopher* (Demas Nwoko, terra-cotta, 1965; fig. 5.18), 201, 205, 206, 207
- Picasso, Pablo: “Blue Period” paintings of, 116; cubism, reading of by Charles Sanders Peirce, 193, Rosalind Krauss, 192, 193, and Yve-Alain Bois, 193; as cubist, and Francis Newton Souza, 138; designed poster for First International Congress of Black Writers and Artists in Paris (1956), 92; horse in center of Guernica (1937), 103; Ibrahim El Salahi inspired by, 303n57; and Isabel Lambert, 83; and Parisian avant-garde, 63; radical abstraction of Picasso-Braque cubism, 127; synthetic cubism of, and Jimo Akolo, 126; and Ulli Beier, 304n77, 308n32; Yusuf Grillo influenced by, 116
- Picton, John, of the Lagos Museum, 216
- Pine, B. C. C., acting governor of Sierra Leone, 24
- Plass, Margaret, 8
- plastograph, term invented by Bruce Onobrakpeya to describe prints that combine intaglio and relief processes, 214
- Porter, James, from Howard University, 237
- Portrait of J. D. Akeredolu* (Akinola Lasekan, oil on canvas, 1957; fig. 3.23), 119
- postcolonial, postcoloniality, 13; Africa, 257; and Art Society, 128, work of, 14; commentary on state as eclipsed by political crises from late 1960s onward, 14; crisis that led to civil war, 19; critique of violence and dysfunction, 289; cultural synthesis, 217; culture, 71, 90, 183; Demas Nwoko, part of discourse, 265, role of art in state and, 288, work of, 286; development of modern art and art criticism, 183; existential ennui, 138; Ibadan and artistic production and debate, 18; Jimo Akolo and artistic language, 226; Kwame Anthony Appiah’s description of, 13, 15; language of literature and art, 265; literary world, 153; need to imagine the postcolonial self, 11; Nigeria, 207, 257, condition, 264, 265, experience, 260, history in, 280, sociopolitical life of state of, 263; Nigerian/African art, artist, 288, and poetry, 19, practice, 17; possibility of failure of sovereign state, 310n11; self, and Uche Okeke, 93, modern art and, 196, part of discourse, 265, role of art in state and, 288, work of, 286; society, 91; subjectivity, 10; theory, 13; and unfolding order, 151; unraveling body politic, 261; and Valente Malangatana, 162; world, 88
- postcolonial modernism: and Art Society, 133, 224, 226; and Black Orpheus, 257; and Demas Nwoko, 259, 265, 285, 286, 288; emergence of, 201; literary, 264; in Nigeria, 129, 184, 258, 285, artist or writer, 265, eastern, 261, relationship with, 289; Nigerian, 241, 256, 257, politics, 283; and Uche Okeke, 259, 265, 286, 288; and Ulli Beier, 151; Western, 265
- postcolonial modernity, 12; African, 11, 128
- postcubist: collages, 193, aesthetic, 127; figuration and palette, 18; Parisian modernism, 55; stylization and simplification of the human figure, 161
- postimpressionists, 99, 112, 116
- postindependence: Africa, 264; African art, 239; crises of nationalism, 14, political, 19, 259; era, 19, 94; future, dark view of, 301n41; in Lagos in period of, 258; Nigeria, 1, 84, 142, 181, 201, 233, 241, 264; Nigerian art, 140, 146, 239, 254, direction of, 19, in period of, 220, political and

- postindependence (continued) cultural practice, 263, and society, 84,
 237, students, 84, Western government,
 311n33; period, 289; Senegal, 93; years,
 interregional rivalry in, 83
- post-Renaissance, 64, 127
- Pot* (Bruce Onobrakpeya, bronze-lino work,
 ca. 1966), 210
- Prayer* (Ibrahim El Salahi, oil on Masonite, 1960; fig. 4.11), 155
- Praying Woman* (Demas Nwoko, 1960), 109
- precolonial, 25, 95
- precubist, 52, 129, 246
- premodernism, Western, 216
- Présence Africaine*, influential francophone journal, 92, 131–32
- Price-Mars, Jean (1876–1969), Haitian writer, 131
- Prince of Wales College, Achimota, in the Gold Coast (Ghana), 62
- Princeton University Art Museum, 219
- Progressive Artists Group (PAG), Mumbaibased, 137
- protonationalists, 27
- Purpose and Admiration*, book, Joseph E.
 Barton (1933), 55
- Quarrel between Ahwaire the Tortoise and Erhako the Dog* (Bruce Onobrakpeya, mural, ca. 1960), 209
- Queen Elizabeth II, 78, 308n31
- Radio Nigeria, 141, 145
- Ramsaran, J. A. (life dates unknown),
 299n4
- Raullerson, Calvin H., director of AMSAC,
 Lagos, 229
- Ravi Shankar* (Naoko Matsubara, woodblock print, 1961; fig. 4.28), 180
- Rawsthorne, Alan, 297n14
- Rawsthorne, Isabel, 297n14. See also Isabel
 Lambert
- Renascent Africa* (Nnamdi Azikiwe, 1937),
 36, 294n43
- The Return of Shango* (Ulli Beier, 1995),
 303n70
- Reynoldian Royal Academy, model, 73;
 style, 45
- Richardson, Marion, 56
- Robertson, James, former governor, Sudan;
 later, Nigeria, 35
- Rogers, Claude, 297n13
- Rothenstein, Sir William, principal, Royal
 College of Art, 57, 59, 242, 296n32
- Rouault, Georges, French fauvist, 138
- Roumain, Jacques (1907–1944), 299n4
- Rousseau, Henri, 112
- Royal Couple*, tapestry, Papa Ibra Tall (1965;
 fig. 3.6), 97, 97
- royal house of the Obong of Calabar, 231
- Royal Ontario Museum, 180
- Sabada (Dance)* (Yusuf Grillo, 1964; fig.
 3.21), 115, 116, 117
- Saint Martin's School of Art, England, 231
- Salahi, Ibrahim. See El Salahi, Ibrahim
- Sango*, exhibition of sculptures from shrine of the Timi of Ede, 302n49
- Sango cult, Yoruba, 300n10
- Sango sculpture* (1964), by Ben Enwonwu,
 for Nigerian Electric Commission, Lagos
 (fig. 6.1), 229, 230
- Sango shrine, Osogbo, 304n82
- Santosh, G. R., key member of Neotantric school, whose abstract paintings explored
 magical signs of tantric yantras, 300n22
- Sartre, Jean-Paul: existentialism of, 240;
 giant of French left intelligentsia, 92; and negritude, 91, poetry, 93, 96, 133
- Schapiro, Dr. Rosa, Estate of, 167
- Schmidt-Rottluff, Karl (1884–1976), German expressionist artist: exhibition at Mbari Ibadan, 165; member of Die
 Brücke, 166, 168, of all most directly influenced by African sculpture, 168; and Ulli Beier, puts together show of work of,
 165, 168, writes exhibition brochure for,
 166, 304n79; 168; works of, 165–66, 167,
 and review of by Denis Williams, 168
- Second International Congress of Black
 Writers and Artists, Rome (1959), 92,
 98, 128
- Secret Voyage* (Valente Malangatana, painting), 162
- Sekoto, Gerard, 303n68
- Senghor, Léopold Sédar (1906–2001),

- president and prime minister of Senegal: on Black Orpheus advisory committee, 299n4; committed to “Françafrique,” 9; invited Gerard Sekoto and Wilson Tiberio to participate in World Festival of Negro Arts (Dakar, 1966), 303n68; met with Kwame Nkrumah while a student in Europe, 9; ruled Senegal with help of French advisers, 9; and “the civilization of the universal,” 92; thought negritude visual and literary aesthetic unique to black people, 97, advocated African cultural independence and uniqueness among negritude poets, 128
- Senufo: Ghanaian tradition of sculpture, 158; West African masks, 156
- Sharaku, Tōshūsai (active 1794–1795), Japanese printmaker, 181
- Sheep Grazing* (Okechukwu Odita, oil on board, 1961; figs. 3.24, 3.25), 119, 120
- Shibrain, Ahmed Mohammed (born 1932), colleague of Ibrahim El Salahi, 153; and Denis Williams, 172, 175; in group becoming Khartoum school, 175; showed at Mbari in 1963, 153, 172, 175; and Ulli Beier, 153; work of, work is based on tradition of solar wood engraving prevalent in Sudan, 175; works of, 174
- Shiko, Munakata (1903–1975), master Japanese printmaker, 181
- A Short Discourse on Art* (Aina Onabolu, 1920), 43, 44, 49, 50
- Shrenk, Reverend Elias, 25
- Shutte, Augustine, South African philosopher, 10
- Simone, Nina, 169
- Sisi Nurse* (Aina Onabolu, oil on canvas, 1922; fig. 2.1), 45, 46
- Slade School of Fine Art, London, 54, 62, 75, 154
- Smithsonian Institution, 104
- Society of Nigerian Artists (SNA): admonished by Yusufu Zaki, 248, 251; and Ben Enwonwu, 238–39; discussion of, 235–38; established in 1964, 19, 181, 237, 258; Yusuf Grillo, president of, 304n90
- sociocryonics, concept proposed by Olu-femi Taiwo, 23
- socio-political history of Nigeria, 271
- Soldier (Soja)*, terra-cotta figures, Demas Nwoko (1968; figs. 7.15, 7.16), 280, 283, 284, 285, 285
- Soldier in Ambush* (Demas Nwoko), former name of the Combatant I and II paintings, 311n32
- Soliman, Mounira, literary scholar, 271
- Souza, Francis Newton (1924–2002), expatriate Indian artist, 298n29; Catholic background of, 137, and treatment of Christian subjects, 300n21; cofounded Mumbai-based Progressive Artists Group, 137; and John Berger, 300n19; turned to native Indian art, 138; and Ulli Beier, 137, essay by, 138, 148; where born, 137; works of, 137, 138, 139
- Soyinka, Wole, 306n5; afflicted by “the Hopkins Disease,” 240; African writer, 14; A Dance of the Forests, 286, 301n41, 310n11, Demas Nwoko designs stage set for, 197; exemplar of writers engaged in debates about postcolonial literary modernism, 264; member of Mbari Artists and Writers Club, Ibadan, 14, 19, 149, inaugural member, 149; poetry, of, 19, 260, 264, 265, 279–80, and abiku, 271, 310n14; Ulli Beier, 301n41, consults with, regarding formation of an artists and writers club, 148; work grappled consequences of Euro-African cultural conflict in colonial and postcolonial Africa, 257
- Stern, Joanne M., 167
- Stevens, George A., first official art teacher in British West African colonies, 62, 295n32
- Street to Mbari*, tempera, gouache, and graphite on paper, Jacob Lawrence (1964; fig. 4.21), 172, 173
- Struggle Between Life and Death*, oil on board, Erhabor Emokpae (1962; fig. 6.6), 245, 247
- The Sun!* (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, 1914), 166
- Surrealism, 127; access of African artists to thwarted, 136; and Colette Omogbai, 252; and Denis Williams, 175; and Erhabor Emokpae’s intentional borrowings from European, 248; and Julian Beinart,

- Surrealism (continued)
162, 175; and Okpu Eze, 252; and Skunder Boghossian's work, and his new brand of surrealism in service of his "Afro-Metaphysics," 175; and Ulli Beier, 136, 252; and Valente Malangatana's work, 162
- The Susan Wenger Foundation, Zöbing am Heiligenstein, 135
- Symbolism, 186; graphic, of Arabic texts, 154; hard-edge, 253; mystical, Salahi's, 156; pictorial, 286; ritual, 138
- Symbolists: Art Society and European, 99; color, 112, 113, and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 113; and Paul Gauguin, 112
- Table of Contents for the J. B. Neumann Portfolio* (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, 1919), 166
- Taiwo, Olufemi, historian, 15, 23, 69
- Tall, Papa Ibra, 98, 226; work of, 97
- Tate Gallery, London, 139
- Tears of God*, oil on board, Erhabor Emokpae (1964), 251
- Tedder Hall, men's residence hall, University of Ibadan, 196, 197; mural at, 201
- Tempels, Placide (1906–1977), 134
- terra-cotta: and Demas Nwoko, 201, 203–4, works in terra-cotta by, 205, 206, 207, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287; Nok sculpture, 201, 203–4, 205; works, 203, 205, 206, 284, 285, 286, 287; workshop organized by Mbari Ibadan and Department of Extra-Mural Studies of University of Ibadan, 204
- Terry Dintenfass Gallery, New York, 172
- Théâtre Lyrique, annual summer school at Vichy, 197
- Things Fall Apart* (Chinua Achebe, 1958), 14, 268, 272–74
- The Three Kings* (Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, 1917), 166
- "Thunder Can Break," first poem in Christopher Okigbo's collection, Path of Thunder, 263
- Tiberío, Wilson, black Brazilian artist: Gerald Moore's essay on in Black Orpheus, 160–61; and Skunder Boghossian, 305n100; visited Senegal with friend Gerard Sekoto, 303n68
- Timi of Ede, the, 302n49
- Tirolien, Guy (1917–1988), 299n4
- Titled Woman* (Demas Nwoko, terra-cotta, 1965; fig. 5.17), 204, 205
- To the Clandestine Maternity Home* (Valente Malangatana, oil on canvas, 1961; fig. 4.16), 162, 164
- Todd, G. E., 78, 79
- Touré, Ahmed Sékou (1922–1984) of Mali, 94
- Townsend, William, 297n13
- Travellers*, etching, Bruce Onobrakpeya (1967; fig. 5.24), 214
- Tretchikoff, Ivan, South African painter, 245
- triple heritage, 10
- Trowell, Margaret, British artist in Uganda, 61, 62
- Tsoede bronzes at Tada, 78, 80
- Turner, William, 49
- Tutuola, Amos (The Palm-Wine Drinkard, 1952), 79, 151, 177, 302n43
- Two Saints in a Landscape* (Francis Newton Souza, oil on board, 1961; fig. 4.2), 139
- Two Yoruba Women* (Yusuf Grillo, oil on canvas, 1960; fig. 4.8), 148
- Tzara, Tristan, surrealist artist, 216
- Udechukwu, Obiora (born 1946): and "archetypal shapes," 186; leading figure in the Nsukka School, 153; photographs by, 197, 266; and retrospective exhibition of Uche Okeke, 5
- Ugbodaga-Ngu, Clara, 236, 238
- Ugoji, Jerome O., 54
- Uli artists, Igbo, Eastern Nigeria, 186
- Uli body artists, 194; art, 196
- Uli forms: ntupo (dot), akala (line), isinwaaji (curvilinear triangles and rectangles), and oloma or onwa (circles and crescents), agwọlagwọ, the concentric coil associated with the sacred python, and mbọ agu, double triangle representing the leopard's claw, 186, 305n3
- Ulli and Georgina Beier Archive, Migila House, Sydney, Australia, mentioned, 303n73, 304n79, 304n84, 304n91, 305n98, 309n42

- Umana, A. P. (born 1920), 54, 145
 United African Company, 85
 University College Library, Ibadan, 302n49
 University College London Art Museum, 123
 University College London, 75, 123
 University College, Legon, 157
 University of Bayreuth, Iwalewa-Haus, collections of, 103, 135, 155, 157, 163, 164, 174
 University of Chichester, England, 53
 University of Ibadan, 196, 197, 201, 204
 University of Lagos Library, Lagos, Federal Society of Arts and Humanities collection, 211, 213, 232, 244, 307n16
 University of Nigeria, Nsukka, 5, 241
 University of Sussex, 125, 225
 Untitled (Agnaldo dos Santos, wood, ca. 1950s; fig. 4.27), 179
 Untitled (Bruce Onobrakpeya, bronze lino, ca. 1966; figs. 5.22, 5.23), 210, 213
 Untitled (Ibrahim El Salahi, ink on paper, 1961; fig. 4.12), 157
 Untitled (Ibrahim El Salahi, oil on canvas, 1954–1957; fig. 4.10), 154, 155
 Untitled (Jimo Akolo, oil on canvas, 1963; fig. 5.29), 223
 Untitled (Valente Malangatana, oil on canvas, 1961; fig. 4.15), 163
 Urhobo: folklore, 11, 112, 209; folktales, 143; oral narratives, 112; personages and ceremonial events, 143; religions, 11
 Urhobo art, 18, 208, 209; ritual, 215
 Urhobo sculptural forms and motifs, 210
 Utamaro, Kitagawa (c. 1753–1806), Japanese printmaker, 181
- van Gogh, Vincent, 112
 van Rossem, Ru, professor of Graphic Arts at the Art Academy in Tilburg, Holland, 209; and Bruce Onobrakpeya, 209; Dutch master printmaker, 153, 208
 Varma, Raja Ravi (1848–1906): Bengal School artist, 137; learned from Dutch painter Theodore Jensen while in Travancore royal court, 47; native revivalism of Bengal school, initiated by, 137; pioneer modern Indian painter, 45; works of, 49
- Verger, Pierre (1902–1996), 134
 Vesey, Paul (Samuel Washington Allen, born 1917), 299n4
 Vincent, David Brown (also known as Mojola Agbebi), 28
 Voigt, Fritz, 167
 vom Rath, Frau Hanna Becker, Kunstkabinett gallery, Frankfurt, Germany, 165 von Posadowsky, Count, German ambassador to Nigeria, visiting Zaria, 1961, 184
 von Sydow, Eckart (1885–1942), 60, 63, 295n30
- A Wand of Noble Wood* (Onuora Nzekwu, inaugural novel, 1961), 257
 Wangboje, Solomon, 208
War Series: The Letter (Jacob Lawrence, egg tempera on composition board, 1946; fig. 4.20), 170
The Warrant Chiefs (A. E. Afigbo, 1972), 293n24
 Washington, Booker T. (1856–1915), African American educator: apparent acceptance of black's status as inferior, 34, 34; death of, 294n37; and Dr. J. E. K Aggrey of Ghana, 34; ideas of influential with twentieth-century African nationals, 33; and industrial/agricultural education program at Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, 33; and W. E. B. Du Bois, 27, 33; work of, 25
 Waters, Grant, collection of, 122
 Wenger, Susanne (1915–2009), Austrian-born artist who became a Yoruba priestess, Adunni-Olorisa: founding member of the Viennese Art Club, 133–34; interest in art of the mentally ill, 135, 136; priestess of Osun cult in Osogbo, 134; wife of Ulli Beier, 133–34, 300n10, and his article on her work, 134, 138, 148, 168, and claim for her visual negritude, 136, and his opinion of her work, 136; works of, 135
 Wesleyan Boys High School (later called Methodist Boys High School), Lagos, 295n12

- West, Western (when referring to European, non-African cultures): absolutes at the basis of Western worldviews, 10; African/indigenous cultures/traditions, 10, 137, 138, 165; African and Western art history not taught at Zaria, 78; Akolo's modernism, 226; architectural design and principles, 5; Art Society did not reject art of, 88; Art Society's radical rejection of, unfounded story, 219; art traditions, 6, and synthesis with indigenous techniques, 8; Black Writers and Artists congresses, 128; blending of African and Western art by Osula, 66, by Boghossian, 175; Blyden and encounter with Western civilization, 93; control over black Africa, 110; decadence/worst elements of Western art and civilization, 91, 217; design principles of Western art, 54; economic and political modernity, 10; impact on Nigerian art, 79; influence of Western art technique, 65; inhumanity and materialism of, 63; interaction among non-Western artists, minorities in West, and Western art movements, 13, 138, 152; knowledge systems, 28; modern African politics, cultures, and art, 96; names changed from Western to Yoruba, 28; Nigerian artists' acceptance of Western methods, 77; notions of nationalism, 9; Onobolu and mastery of Western "fine art," 49; Osogbo not influenced by Western art and academic practices, 161; pilgrimage to, 10; pioneer modern painters in non-Western world, 51; prejudices against black man, 94; strictures of Western education, 136; styles borrowed by S. Okeke from modern Western art, 18; Western culture, cultural heritage, 28, 29; Western iconography in Nwoko's art, 198; Western modernity, 11, 12; Western museum collections, studied by S. Okeke, 219; Western techniques of realism, illusionism, 41, 69, and Onobolu's work, 44, 45, 47, 50; Western-style art schools in Africa, 23; Western-style education, 24, 26
- West African Review*, 32, 152; and Ibrahim El Salahi, and Ulli Beier essay on, 153, 156; images from, 152, 185
- West African University, proposed, 31
- Western Regional Festival of Arts, 85
- White Fraternity* (Demas Nwoko, oil on board, ca. 1960; fig. 3.16), 110, 110
- Whitney Museum of American Art, New York, 170
- Williams, Akintola, pioneer Nigerian accountant, 307n14
- Williams, Denis (1923–1998): and Arabic calligraphy, 172, 175; asserted pivotal role of Ahmed Shibrain and Ibrahim El Salahi in group that was on way to becoming a Khartoum school, 175; and Black Orpheus, contributed most of art criticism published in, 257, review, 160, 172, of Ibrahim El Salahi, 157, of Karl Schmidt-Rottluff exhibition, 168; championed the work of some of Art Society members, 169; and Demas Nwoko and Nok sculpture, 204; Guyanese artist and art historian, 153; and Khartoum school, 175 and Ulli Beier, 153; and understanding and valuation of artistic tradition within Sudanese context, 175; wrote introductory essay in Ahmed Mohammed Shibrain exhibition flyer, 172, compared Shibrain to lyrical abstract French painter Hans Hartung, 175
- Williams, K. O., assistant principal at Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology, 72
- Williams, Sapara, Lagosian lawyer, 27
- Wilson, Francesca M., 55, 56
- Women's War of 1929, 274, 276, 311n26.
See also Aba Women's War
- Woodhouse, John, colonial secretary, 31
- World Festival of Negro Arts, Dakar, 172
- Writers' Club, Gabriel Okara, 310n3
- Yaba College of Technology, Lagos, 227, 241
- Yaba Technical College, 145
- Yoruba, 208, 306n18, 306n25; and actor Duro Ladipo, 161, 302n48; art, 18, form, 172; cultural, 171, heritage, 28; cultures, 134; first king of, 78; generic portraits and Art Society members, 115; goddess

- Olokun, 299n9; history or myths, 45; legends and royal portraits, 47; names, 28; religion, 136; ritual, 136, experts, 28; and sculptor George Bandele, 145; sculpture, 79, cement, 299n9; tradition of sculpture, great, 158; traditional masks, sculpture, and drawings, 44; traditions, 160; wall painting, 310n9; woman, Yusuf Grillo painting of, 116; words, 268, 272, 303n70; workshop, Lamidi Fakeye trained in, 147
- Yoruba adire textile design. See adire textile design, Yoruba
- Yoruba Ronu (Hubert Ogunde, 1964), 286, 311n33
- Yoruba Sango cult, 300n10
- Young Turks, 19
- Young Woman with a Veena* (Raja Ravi Varma, oil on canvas, ca. 1901: fig. 2.3), 49
- Zaki, Yusufu, 248, 251
- Zaria. See Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology
- Zikist movement, 208
- Zungur, Sa'ad, of National Council of Nigeria and the Cameroons, 293n15
- Zwemmer Gallery, London, 57, 66
- Zwemmer show (exhibition), 57, 59